French, British Ships Are Bombed

FIVE KILLED IN AIR RAIDS

BULLETIN
VALENCIA, June 9.—(UP)—An unidentified merchant ship was bombed off Benicassin, north of here on the Mediterranean coast. It was reported that 12 members of the crew were killed and 19 wounded.

HENDAYE, French - Spanish Frontier, June 9.—(UP)—Spanish Nationalist airplanes sank a British merchantman and a French merchantman in raids last night with the loss of two British and three French lives, Loyalist dispatches said today.

A Madrid dispatch reported that a British officer of the international non-intervention patrol named Edward Jones, a British seaman named Bulloch and three French seamen were killed aboard an unidentified French vessel at Denia, on the Mediterranean coast between Valencia and Alicante.

British Ship Sinks
The British steamship Isidora was reported bombed and sunk by Nationalist planes, but without casualties, at Castellon de la Plana, above Valencia.

First reports were that the Isidora's engine room was blown out and the ship severely damaged. Later reports said that the ship sank.

Advices from Denia tentatively identified the bombed French ship as the Brisbane. (No French ship Brisbane is listed in Lloyd's).

Bullets Rain Death
Two bombs struck the ship, after which an insurgent plane raked it with machinegun fire for half an hour.

(Lloyd's register lists a steamship Isidora, 1212 tons, of Belfast, but no Isidora).

Despite mounting evidence of Britain's anger at the bombing of her ships, and growing international anxiety over casualties to civilians, the Nationalists continued their attacks on Loyalist coastal towns.

Italian Bombers
Nine airplanes described officially as Italian Savoias dropped more than 100 explosive and incendiary bombs yesterday on Figueras, 12 miles from the French frontier.

Thirty were known killed, Loyalist dispatches said, 25 buildings, including a school, an old folks' home and a hospital were destroyed.

It was feared that American wounded of the Loyalist International Brigade were among the victims.

There is a Loyalist base hospital at Figueras, filled with wounded, and it was reported that at least 60 Americans were in Figueras or its vicinity.

Rebels Jubilant
So many persons were wounded in the attack that ambulances were sent to France with some of them.

Nationalists were jubilant at the success of their new drive toward Castellon de la Plana on the coast. They asserted that they were driving the Loyalists through the hills northwest of Castellon de la Plana after occupying the strategically important village of Adzaneta and repelling Loyalist counter attacks.

14 L. A. Men Are Indicted By Jury
LOS ANGELES, June 9.—(UP)—Fourteen men, including a city and state official, were under indictment today in the county grand jury's investigation of attempts to prevent price cutting in the Los Angeles cleaning and dyeing industry.

The indictment charged conspiracy to commit bodily harm, extortion and destruction of private property. Among defendants are Alfred Lushling, water and power commissioner; deputy State Fire Marshal Frank D. Scovel and Harry D. Dansky, cleaners union agent.

Lushling insisted no crime had been committed "unless laboring earnestly to rehabilitate an important industry constitutes conspiracy."

Windsors To Tour In U. S.

NEW YORK, June 9.—(UP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor will visit the United States next March, the United Press learned today from an unimpeachable source.

The Duke and Duchess plan a three month tour of the country. The trip will not be under anybody's auspices. It will be a vacation primarily, although the Duke hopes to make some incidental study of social conditions.

Unofficial Visit
Only the Duke and Duchess, their personal servants and a police guard will be in the party.

The visit will be unofficial and private, but it is understood that the approval of Buckingham Palace and the British and American governments is required.

Declared 'Mistake'

LABOR DIVISION IS DECLARED 'MISTAKE'

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—(UP)—A survey of 6000 employees of manufacturing firms throughout the United States, conducted by the National Association of Manufacturers, showed today that a majority of the interviewed workers believe that organized labor's greatest mistake was its division into the American Federation of Labor and Committee for Industrial Organization.

The report was presented to the Pacific Coast Manufacturers Conference convention by Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice president of the N. A. M.

Want More Money
The survey also showed that the employees believed their employers' greatest mistake was in paying insufficient wages; that most union members joined a union because they wanted more money and that most non-union men did not join a union because they feared their employers.

The N. A. M., in prefacing the survey, said the questions were asked the employees "after working hours" by trained interviewers who previously conducted surveys for Fortune Magazine.

Answer Questions
To the questions "why do men get fired?" 31.6 per cent answered "lack of ability"; 21.1 per cent believed it was carelessness, and 15.7 believed it was for disobeying company rules. Others said "laziness," "dislike by boss" and "drunkenness." Five per cent blamed union activity.

Twenty five per cent of the employees believed that management usually was to blame when there were troubles between the employers and workers; 21.6 per cent believed workers usually were at fault; 33.9 per cent believed employees and employers were equally to blame, and the remainder gave other reasons.

Sues Swim Star For Divorce
HOLLYWOOD, June 9.—(UP)—Arthur Jarrett, orchestra leader, went into court today to divorce Eleanor Holm, swimming star, on the ground that he had been held up to "public scorn and contempt" because of the romantic association of Miss Holm and Billy Rose, New York theatrical producer.

Miss Holm, who was fired from the Berlin Olympics swimming team because of her alleged penchant for champagne, now is in New York and has indicated she would not contest the divorce.

Rose is the husband of Fanny Brice, the comedienne.

In his divorce suit Jarrett said his wife and the other man, whom he did not name, had publicly announced they planned to marry.

Rose and Miss Holm made the announcement almost a year ago in Denver.

Snake Victim Refuses Aid
HAMMOND, La., June 9.—(UP)—Mrs. Joe Rushing today ignored the plea of her son that she receive medical attention for a snake bite which she says will be cured through faith alone. Fellow members of the Holiness sect of the Church of God predicted earthly sainthood for her as she remained steadfast.

The 56-year-old wife of a crystal Springs, Miss., sawmill operator remained gravely ill at the home of the Rev. J. T. Priest, overseer of the sect.

J. Walter Rushing, 26, one of her four children, came from Mississippi to beg her to call in a doctor. "He's a sinner," Priest said. "His mother will be cured because she had faith."

STATE'S "GREED" IS BLAMED FOR U. S. TIDELAND OIL MOVE

If the state of California hadn't been so greedy about taking $744,000 per year in oil royalties from the Huntington Beach operators, and robbing Orange county and the city of Huntington Beach of $77,025 per year in tax levies, it might not have attracted the eye and the cupidty of the federal government, which now threatens to take the oil plum away from California, County Assessor James Sleeper observed grimly today.

"There's such a thing as being too hogish," said Sleeper, who intimated his belief that it would serve the California government right to have the federal government take its candy away, were it not for the fact that the seizure would affect the whole people of the state.

Demands Unreasonable
Sleeper hit the state's action in waiting until private capital had discovered and developed the oil pool, then stepping in and claiming it. The state, he said, should have established the high tide line along the coast, and notified the public that this marked the line of state property, before private operators explored the tidelands.

Moreover, he declared, the state has placed its royalty demands un-

JAPANESE RAID ON COLLEGE PROTESTED

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull today formally protested to the Japanese government through American Ambassador Joseph C. Grew at Tokyo over the bombing of the American financed Lingnan University at Canton by Japanese war planes.

Three bombs dropped by Japanese planes in their raids over Canton yesterday fell on the edge of the campus of the university and exploded about 200 yards from the buildings in which American nationals were living. No one was injured and the houses were not damaged.

Strong Protest
Hull instructed Grew to call the attention of the Japanese government to the incident and to ask that urgent measures be taken to prevent any further attack on university property. Grew informed the department that he had taken up the matter with the foreign office.

Earlier the American consul general at Hong Kong had made representations to the Japanese consul there over the bombing.

Chinese Troops Wreck Nippon Forces
SHANGHAI, June 9.—(UP)—Chinese troops began destroying the city of Chenchow today, preparing to abandon the junction of the Lunghai railway with the Peiping-Hankow line.

Japanese military authorities said their troops were within a few miles of Chenchow, the gateway to Hankow, despite Chinese efforts to halt them by cutting dikes on the Yellow River.

Buildings Blasted

Chained Wife; Lands In Jail

BINGHAM, Utah, June 9.—(UP)—Lynn D. Sandstrom, 37, wanted his wife to stay at home, so he put a chain around her neck and locked it to a heavy railroad rail before he went to work yesterday.

Neighbors heard Mrs. Sandstrom's screams. When they investigated they found the 35 year old woman in the kitchen of her home, the heavy chain dangling around her neck.

The neighbors called Deputy Sheriff Jack Householder and told him that they were going to tar and feather Sandstrom unless the deputy arrested him. Householder went by the garage where Sandstrom is a mechanic, took him into custody, forced him to release Mrs. Sandstrom, then locked him up in the county jail.

Picard's 70 Best At U. S. Open

DENVER, June 9.—(UP)—Holding his shots well in line during a sustained scoring streak on the back nine, Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., today scored a 70, one under par, to lead the field in the National Open golf championship.

Emory Zimmerman of Portland, Ore., had a 72, one stroke over par. Jim Faulstich, Olin Dutra, Levi Lynch of Dallas and Wilford Wehrle, Racine amateur, had 74's. Joe Belfiore of Detroit, Mike Turner of Elmsford, N. Y., and Art Doering, Stanford University amateur, took 75's.

Filibuster Threatened

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(UP)—Seventeen southern senators today issued a filibuster ultimatum effective unless a flexible 40 cent wage standard is placed in the wage-hour bill.

The southern group charged that the compromise provision agreed upon by Senate and House conferees did not provide sufficient flexibility in reaching the 40 cent standard to meet southern demands.

Issue Ultimatum
The ultimatum demanded that no flat wage standard of more than 25 cents an hour be included in the bill and that the administrator of the proposed new act be allowed discretion in raising industry standards to the goal of 40 cents an hour.

The compromise to which the southern bloc objected provides a 25 cent minimum immediately, a 30 cent minimum the second year followed by five years in which wages between 30 and 40 cents an hour would be recommended by industry boards and placed in effect by the administrator of the act. Seven years from now the 40

MORE FLOODS LOOM FOR SAN JOAQUIN

FRESNO, Cal., June 9.—(UP)—An increased runoff of melting snow into the Kings and San Joaquin rivers today threatened further floods in the lower San Joaquin valley.

William L. Kaupke, Kings river watermaster, reported a flow of 19,120 second feet of water on the Kings river at Piedra, a 1300 foot rise over yesterday's flow. Kaupke said warm weather in the mountain regions had increased the runoff.

Canal Breaks
In the vicinity of Firebaugh in western Fresno county, the Columbia canal adjoining the San Joaquin river broke through its banks and inundated hundreds of acres of farm land on three ranches.

The water was flowing rapidly through a 100-foot hole in the canal levee.

Huge pumps were installed near Stratford to prevent flood waters of the South fork of the Kings river from reaching the farm community. The sheriff's office reported the dyke patched today, but said that waters which had already gone through the break had spread out over the lowlands and were heading for the town.

Road Flooded
Travel in the Tulare lake area to west side valley points still was subject to detour. Kings county officials said the Kettleman Hills-Hanford road was now under three feet of water.

Only the north-east corner of reclamation district 749 remained above water today. Farmers cut an 18-foot levee late yesterday to give the lake an additional 11,400 acres of storage space and alleviate pressure on adjoining levees protecting tracts containing unharvested grain.

Ranchers said it was only a matter of hours until the whole lake bed district is flooded with a probable loss of nearly $1,100,000.

State Leads In FHA Mortgages
WASHINGTON, June 9.—(UP)—The federal housing administration said that about $74,000,000 of the $376,000,000 in mortgages accepted for insurance by the FHA in the first five months of this year were in California.

This is about 20 per cent of all mortgages accepted. California led all states in 1937 with FHA mortgages valued at a total of $89,733,210.

County History Recalled As U. S. Denies Homestead Plea
Days of the old land grants from Mexico were recalled today when it was learned by The Register that the general land office refused to accept the filing fees for a proposed new homestead entry on 240 acres in the Rancho Lomas de Santiago area of the Irvine ranch.

The fees were returned with the statement that the validity of ownership had been definitely established by congressional action and federal court decisions and that no portion of the territory could be classified as public land subject to homestead entry.

Historical Background
The original land grant of the territory was to Todecio Yorba in 1841 and included land from the present Irvine station north to the county line. From Yorba the land went to William Wolfskill and later to the firm of Flint, Bixby and Irvine. Following this, James Irvine, father of the present James Irvine, acquired sole title to the grant. He became possessor of the San Joaquin ranch at the same time.

According to T. E. Stephenson, county treasurer and historian, the land is a revival of former efforts of a similar nature. A few years ago a Los Angeles concern that made a business of such practices was the subject of a congressional investigation following an influx of "squatters" who had settled on the land.

Victim of Kidnap-Murderer

Pictured above, as he appeared a short time before he was snatched from his crib May 29, is five-year-old Jimmy Cash, whose skeleton remains were found early today in a palm tree clump a short distance from the Cash home.

Franklin Pierce McCall, 21, has been arrested by G-men as a suspect in the kidnap-murder.

To the left is James B. Cash, Princeton, Fla., father of the murdered boy. The father had paid $10,000 in ransom for the release of his son. This morning, soon after the discovery of Jimmy's remains, the ransom money also was found.

Guests Victims Of Hotel Strike

PORTLAND, Ore., June 9.—(UP)—The 5000 guests of Portland's eight largest hotels spent a large part of their time today walking up and down stairs and sitting in restaurants waiting for food, instead of attending the festivities of the gala Rose Festival.

Two thousand workers went out on strike last night at the city's largest hotels after operators refused to negotiate union contracts. The strike began even as a banquet was in progress for the Rose Festival queen and her attendants.

Hotel guests waited while skeletonized crews operated elevators and prepared and served their food. In many cases the visitors carried their own luggage although bellhops continued to work at most of the hotels. Union employees of the hotels, baggage companies and restaurants were on strike.

New Tax Review Offices Set Up
WASHINGTON, June 9.—(UP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., announced today that regional offices for final review of tax cases would be set up by the internal revenue bureau in New York City and Chicago.

In addition, Morgenthau said, the Los Angeles review office will be transferred to San Francisco but a coordinating office will be maintained in Los Angeles. The San Francisco division's jurisdiction will be extended to the states of Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and the territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

Coordinating offices, which will have the same authority as the main clearing office in San Francisco, will be established at Seattle, and Salt Lake City. There will be a branch office in Portland, Ore.

Automobile Union Plans Strike

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 9.—(UP)—Two Sacramento automobile workers' unions today prepared to strike tomorrow morning if demands are not met.

Unions were Machinists and Mechanics Union and Garage and Service Station Employees, AFL affiliates. Nearly 450 persons will be affected.

The unions' controversy with employers involves wages, hours and working conditions, union spokesmen said.

FIND BODY OF VICTIM

MIAMI, Fla., June 9.—(UP)—Threats of violence were circulated through South Florida today after federal agents found the body of kidnapped Jimmy Cash, recovered the $10,000 ransom that was vainly paid for his release and arrested a suspect.

G-men, directed by J. Edgar Hoover, questioned Franklin Pierce McCall, 21 year old farm hand, to learn full details of the abduction and murder of the blue eyed, five year old boy.

Admits Sending Notes
McCall, who confessed writing the ransom notes and collecting the money led federal agents to the body and the ransom early today. He was carefully guarded on the 13th floor offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

But at Princeton, scene of the abduction and murder, and at Homestead, five miles further south, danger of mob violence was so acute that a coroner's inquest was cancelled.

Fear Violence
Judge Sidney Hendrick said that testimony in the formal inquiry will not be taken until Saturday. It was indicated that G-men were reluctant to take McCall to Princeton or Homestead and incur the danger of violence.

It was learned, however, that a coroner's jury was impaneled secretly shortly after dawn and visited the scene where the body—hardly more than a skeleton—was found. Hendrick, to whom the jury will report Saturday, said it will not be necessary for McCall to appear.

Mob Threatens
Men gathered at the Princeton cross roads and angrily discussed the case. During the search of the Florida Everglades and Keys for the body last week, many of the 3000 men who participated said there would be mob violence.

There appeared to be little danger of mob action, however, until the G-men complete their case. Hoover and his agents were questioning additional suspects and indicated they may announce developments today. They apparently were seeking a complete statement of what part McCall had in the baby-snatching.

Offices Mob Proof
The FBI offices here are mob proof. Located on the 13th floor of the Biscayne building and accessible only by two elevators, the offices were an absolute guarantee that no mass effort to obtain vengeance would be made so long as McCall is in the hands of the G-men. When he is transferred to the county jail he will be taken to a cell atop the sky scraper county building in downtown Miami.

McCall, a married man and son of a minister, insisted he was only an accomplice. Despite his insistence, however, plans were pushed to ask his indictment under a Florida kidnapping statute which carries the death penalty.

Hoover said that others might be involved in the case.

Four Men Quizzed
It was understood that four men were being questioned at FBI headquarters, where McCall was held prisoner.

If McCall actually had any part in the crime, it was apparently his first criminal act, and his bold and blundering tactics had trapped him. He had no police record. It was McCall who "found" the last of the three ransom notes. He had been among the first to join the vast army of volunteers who plodded through the countryside hunting the kidnapers and the body for a week without success.

Became Suspicious
He had even gone to members of the Cash family and talked to them about kidnappings, commenting on how easy it was for the abductors to break into the house. Members of the Cash family were the first to become suspicious of McCall. They told the sheriff, D. C. Coleman, of their suspicions, and he intercepted McCall last week when the latter returned home from another day's "search."

Predict Passage Of FBI Measure

WASHINGTON, June 9.—(UP)—Congressional leaders today expected the Senate to approve without opposition an appropriation of an additional $453,000 for the Federal Bureau of Investigation to carry on an intensified war on crime and kidnapping.

The funds were carried in the second deficiency bill. In passing the bill, the house added without a dissenting vote $200,000 to the $253,000 originally put in the bill.

Upon recommendation of President Roosevelt, $50,000 was put in for expenses in running down the kidnapers of young James Cash, Princeton, Fla., boy whose body was found by G-men a few hours after the house granted the funds. Another $150,000 was set up in a special emergency fund to be used if needed next year.

DRINKING BOUT JAILS COUPLE

Frank Martinez, 22, 223 Chestnut street, Stanton, who has served terms in county jail three times during the past two years, landed in the same jail again last night and Mrs. Mary Arbisio, 34, Box 238, Stanton, landed in county hospital at the same time after a drinking bout in a Stanton beer parlor, according to authorities.

According to report of Deputy Sheriffs Ezra Stanley and Ed Hoffman who arrested Martinez on a drunk charge, and hospital officials, he and Mrs. Arbisio, a friend, were drinking beer in the place when Martinez assertedly became angry over some remark and beat Mrs. Arbisio about the face and body.

Has Long Record
It was necessary to take stitches in her forehead where a three-inch cut was made, asserted by Martinez. The officers said Mrs. Arbisio assertedly fears Martinez' wrath and is afraid to sign a battery complaint against him.

On December 17, 1935, records show, Martinez was sentenced in Anaheim to pay a $100 fine and go to jail for 30 days for drunk driving; he was paroled the day before Christmas after paying $50 of the fine. On March 20, last year, Justice Charles Kuchel sent Martinez to jail for six months for being drunk and disturbing the peace, and on December 20, the same judge sent Martinez back to jail for five days upon an intoxication conviction.

Windsors Plan Visit to America

government either has been sought or will be.

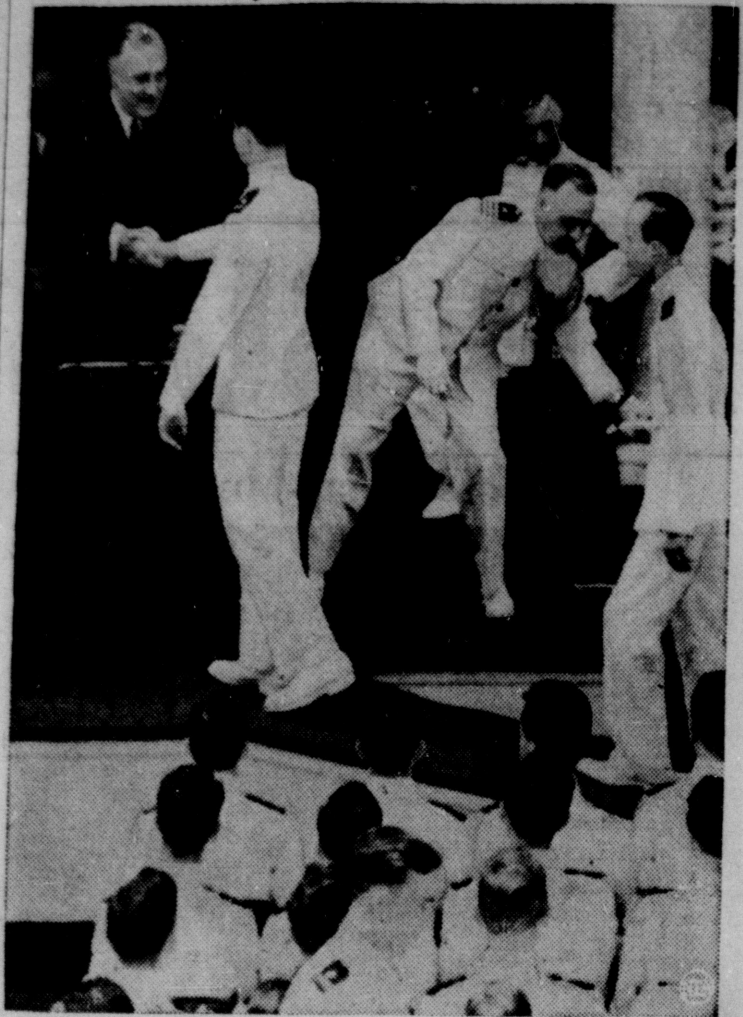

Ever since the ill-fated trip sponsored by the Duke's friend, Charles E. Bedaux, author of the industrial "speed-up" plan, the Duke has cherished the hope of visiting his wife's home country. The Bedaux trip was cancelled when American labor raised protests against it, and there was fear that unpleasantness might result.

Makes Own Plans
Since then, the Duke has been working out his own plans for the trip, without taking anyone's advice. He will keep himself occupied during the summer and autumn preparing details of the visit. The Duke and Duchess are now on the French Riviera, staying at a hotel while their newly-acquired Chateau La Croix, which they have leased for three years, is being made ready for their occupancy.

It has been suggested that if their reception in America is sufficiently favorable, the Duke may decide to reside eventually in the United States.

The Tarascans, a tribe of Mexico Indians, are said to be the world's greatest masters of archery.

New Navy Officer and His Chief

Beaming with pride, President Roosevelt, as Commander-in-Chief, congratulates one of the 435 cadets who were graduated from Annapolis to take their places as officers in the enlarged American navy. Speaking at the graduation ceremonies, during which he handed out the diplomas, President Roosevelt urged the Navy men to have well-rounded viewpoints and to be "thorough-going, up-to-date, intelligent American citizens."

Hundreds Join Convict Search

FLORENCE, Ariz., June 8. —(UP)—Every available man was summoned from the Arizona state prison and Pinal county sheriff's office today to join civilian deputies in tracking down escaped convicts believed to have become desperate and dangerous after two days of pursuit.

James Bailey, 20, so-called "Arizona bad boy," who killed a deputy sheriff last night at Ray, Ariz., was looked in the death cell at the prison this morning and charged with murder. Bailey surrendered to the searching party in an abandoned ore bin after "shooting it out" with Jack Hickox, a deputy, in front of a Ray grocery store. Hickox died instantly of a bullet through his throat.

Still at large were Tony Meyers, 23-year-old felon, and Columbus Reece, 31-year-old Negro.

SECRETARY MISSING
SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 9. —(UP)—Authorities today continued a search for Mrs. Louise M. Brock, county assessor's secretary, missing since Saturday.

The tourist industry is worth more than $200,000,000 a year to France.

Filibuster Is Threatened

cent standard would become universal, unless an industry could show that the wage level would reduce employment opportunities.

ADJOURNMENT HOPES FADE

WASHINGTON, June 9. —(UP)—Hope that Congress might complete the administration program and adjourn this week-end has vanished. Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley told President Roosevelt today.

Barkley told the President that there was not a chance that Congress would adjourn this weekend. He fixed next Tuesday or Wednesday as the most likely date for the end of the session.

Issue Ultimatum

The Senate leader discussed the whole legislative situation with Mr. Roosevelt. While his discussion was taking place, a group of 17 southern Senators issued an ultimatum on the wage-hour bill which has expected to create another barrier to quick adjournment. The southern group threatened a filibuster unless their demands for full flexibility in wage standards of the labor standards bill are met.

Delay Predicted

With conflict over the wage-hour bill and the relief-recovery bill still unsolved, chances for a finish to the session Saturday went glimmering.

House conferees on the $3,723,000,000 recovery bill indicated at their first meeting with the Senate group that the upper chamber's $175,000,000 addition to the 1939 relief funds would be accepted. No formal action was taken and some members said after the 90 minute discussion that it would take a "long time" to reconcile the $568,575,000 difference between the two bills.

Plan Rejected

The Senate, meanwhile, rejected the plan of its judiciary committee to have an 11 member committee retain complete control of all funds in the contemplated $500,000 investigation of monopolies.

The Senate defeated, 40 to 28, an amendment placed by the judiciary committee in the resolution of Sen. Joseph C. Mahoney, D., Wyo., providing for the investigation.

With the amendment eliminated, the resolution provides that $100,000 of the total fund shall be at the disposal of the proposed committee, while the President will have full authority to allocate the remaining $400,000 among various executive departments aiding in the study. The fight against the judiciary committee's plan was led by Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley.

"SWINGS" FOR MERRIAM

SACRAMENTO, June 9. —(UP)—Gov. Frank P. Merriam swung a "swing" hand behind him today in his re-election campaign when Ted Pio-Rito announced he and his band would "swing along" with the governor.

G-MEN FIND BODY OF KIDNAP VICTIM

the suspect, he turned him over to G-men, who questioned him persistently for several days. Sheriff Coleman said "It is my opinion that this was a one man job."

The "break" came shortly after 11 p. m. last night. Hoover, 12 G-men, an autopsy surgeon and a state prosecutor, sped from the Miami FBI office dressed in khaki clothes and carrying spades and shovels. It was understood that McCall accompanied them.

Body Is Found

A mile from the Cash boy's home, half a mile off the road in a lush, tangled mangrove country, they found the body. It was little more than a skeleton, identifiable only by the white and rose-colored pajamas that clung to it. The manner of death could not be established, even after an autopsy. Dr. Thomas O. Otto, Miami surgeon who performed it, said there were no fractures or bruises. G-men believed the boy had been smothered or choked.

G-men found the ransom money in an orchard belonging to Charles Chambers, a mile from where the body lay. The shoe box in which Cash delivered the $10,000 in a night tray with the kidnapers on May 30, was found torn to bits and buried under a stone in front of the home of Joseph Hilliard, McCall's father-in-law, Hoover announced.

Visited Cash Home

Concerning McCall, the evidence was:

On the night of May 30, he appeared at the combined home and filling station of W. P. Cash, brother of the boy's father. The Cash brothers live next door and both have filling stations.

McCall rapped on the door and asked W. P. Cash to open his office to sell him three gallons of gasoline. Cash opened the door for him. As he stepped into the doorway, McCall stooped, seemed to pick up a piece of paper. He handed it to Cash, saying: "Look here. What's this?"

Note Delivered

It was the ransom note instructing the boy's father the second time to bring $10,000 to a designated place on a highway near town.

McCall said somebody must have shoved the note under the door. Cash said later that he was suspicious because the paper was crumpled, and not in a condition to have been shoved under a door.

Mrs. W. P. Cash's suspicions were aroused next. She recalled that McCall had been idling near her house one day after the kidnapping, along with other members of the searching party, when she had exclaimed that she was "glad the windows of her apartment were strong."

"I feel well protected," Mrs. Cash had said.

Sheriff Makes Arrest

She remembered that McCall had replied: "Why, Mrs. Cash, I could get into the house in three minutes."

W. P. Cash and his wife told Sheriff Coleman of their suspicions. Last Tuesday, when McCall returned from a searching trip, the sheriff took him in custody. He brought him to Miami and questioned him. What information he obtained he did not say. He turned the prisoner over to G-men on Wednesday.

It was apparent that Hoover and his men had been ready to "break" the case for some time. When they summoned newspapermen and announced the arrest, recovery of the body and the ransom money at 1:30 a. m. today, they had a life's story of McCall typewritten and four pictures of him available for each reporter.

Throughout the morning, G-men worked at their same swift, secretive pace. At 6 a. m., a new prisoner was brought into FBI headquarters here, shackled and accompanied by five of the federal agents.

reasonably high, from six to nearly 16 per cent, whereas the federal government is content with six per cent from oil produced on its lands.

"Why should the state of California take from the city and school district of Huntington Beach and the county of Orange more than $744,000 from March, 1937, to March, 1938, in royalties for oil and gas produced from the whipstock wells drilled from the bluff at Huntington Beach into the oil pool lying off shore from the city of Huntington Beach?" demanded Sleeper. "The oil royalties run from .067 per cent to .1566 per cent, and the gas royalties run 20 per cent for all gas or gasoline produced."

Work Hardship

"These high royalties work a hardship on the producer, especially where he has to pay the lot owner one-sixth or more of all oil and gas produced from the well located on his lot."

"If this state royalty could be assessed value of $3,744,208 to add school taxes, we would have an assessed value of $3,744,208 to add to our tax rolls, which would mean a saving to every taxpayer, as the county and school tax from this source would amount to $77,025."

"Why Jump on Me?"

"Why does the state at this late date jump on to the whipstock wells at Huntington Beach when the wells in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties which are drilled out in the ocean and have been producing for more than 25 years, pay little or no royalty?"

"I have been told that our national government receives six per cent for oil produced on government land. If this is a fact, why should the state take as high as $1566 per cent from the Huntington Beach field when they pay nothing for fire and police protection which the city furnishes? Is it any wonder our national government is wanting to get a hold on this property, when it is paying to the state such a nice fat royalty? The state at least should have been willing to divide this royalty with the city, school and county, so as to relieve the taxpayer's burden to some extent. No—the state wanted it all or nothing. It may get nothing if the national government makes its claim to all all submerged land valid in our courts. Some time it is better to let the other fellow have what is justly due him than to be so selfish as to take it all."

MODESTO, Cal., June 9. —(UP)—Superior Judge B. C. Hawkins today ordered Carl M. Lewis, Stockton broker, and four of his salesmen to appear Sept. 13 for trial after the five entered pleas of not guilty to 14 counts of grand theft and conspiracy to violate the corporate securities act.

Demurrers filed on behalf of each of the defendants were denied by Judge Hawkins. Defendants with Lewis are Lloyd E. Harter of Modesto, Fred H. Squires of Berkeley, and Thomas R. Williams and Harry Wilkerson, both of Stockton. The five were indicted by the Stanislaus county grand jury on the complaint of investors who alleged they suffered losses of $80,000 after buying securities from Lewis and his salesmen.

FIFTH DISTRICT IN STORM WHIRL

The fifth supervisory campaign took the center of the Orange county political stage today, with entry of two new opponents for Supervisor N. E. West, one of them from his home town of Laguna Beach.

James C. McKeever, newspaperman and apartment house manager, resident of 274 Cliff drive, Laguna Beach, obtained nomination papers from County Clerk B. J. Smith and announced his intention of making the race against West. The other fifth district candidate is J. W. Sauters of Tustin, who was defeated for the office in the primary four years ago.

Attorney James B. Tucker of Santa Ana, who recently announced his candidacy for Office No. 1 on the superior court bench, obtained his nomination papers today, as did Joel Ogle, another Santa Ana attorney, who seeks election as district attorney.

Brother, Sister In Suicide Pact

ADRIAN, Mich., June 9. —(UP)—Lyle Ward, 18, and his pretty, 17-year-old sister, Heloise, who was graduated from high school only last week, preferred death to the "way things are at present," so they joined hands and died in a tightly sealed, gas filled automobile.

That was the story police evolved today after the bodies of the two, who had lived apart with grandparents since the divorce of their parents 14 years ago, were removed from the car. They had been missing since Sunday.

A note found beside their bodies said they were "sorry" but the "way things are life isn't worth living." They were known to have been despondent over the divorce of their father and mother. The father is Harold Ward, the mother is now Mrs. Donald Webert.

PLEAS MAY BE VOICED TODAY

Acting on the assumption that the state will more readily grant aid for reconstructing the outfall sewer in small amounts than it will approve the entire $315,000 sought, the sewer board met last night at Anaheim to request two additional lesser grants.

To date, two grants have been made from the state, one of $45,000 for work on Section One and one for $40,000 for work on Section Two.

Ready For Pumping Plant

Two weeks ago the engineers of the cities involved met to discuss plans and specifications for a $75,000 pumping plant, to comprise the first unit of a treatment plant "which may be necessary in four or five years." While already requested, the application was given formal approval at last night's board meeting.

The fourth request was agreed upon last evening when the board accepted recommendations of the engineers which grew out of a meeting they held but an hour before the board meeting. This is a request for $47,549 to provide for intake and out-take pipelines at the settling ponds and pumping plants. Plans call for 3950 feet of 30 and 36 inch vitrified pipe.

Press Demands Today

Although formal application will be made in writing, it was agreed last night that Mayor Fred C. Rowland of Santa Ana, chairman of the board, and Engineer J. L. McBride call on Governor Frank P. Merriam this week, probably today, while he is in Los Angeles, to press their demands.

Formerly, sewage from Section Two and from Santa Ana was combined at one manhole and entered the now-abandoned screening plant in one line. The new plan sought will carry two lines into the pumping plant and provide for one line out of it to join Section One. The breakdown cost shows $10,210 for the line from Section Two; $8006 for the line from Santa Ana; and $29,433 for the outlet. Some of this work was provided for under the WPA project now under way but none of it was included in the aid granted by the state to date.

Hope for "Half"

Should the sewer district receive all that it has now asked for in smaller parcels, there would be but $100,000 left to be granted by the state to provide for the entire $315,000 project wanted. Sewer board members however hope to get "at least half" of the amount asked for under the two applications pending, and are holding out for the entire amount but with little confidence of getting it all.

WORK OF STATE BODY OUTLINED

Frankly confessing the shortcomings of the state personnel board, Louis Kroeger, head of the office, last night told nearly 100 members of the California State Employees' association, meeting at the city hall, that the board was making every effort to correct the situation.

1500 Classifications

Pointing out that there are more than 1,500 different classifications of jobs in the state, Kroeger said that the personnel board was, and has been, working to simplify the rules and regulations under which it must work in order to give better service to the tax payers of the state.

"Through our survey conducted recently we were able to show the necessity of increases in salary on lower bracket state employees," he said. "The increase brought nearly one million dollars to state employees, more than 80 per cent of the increase went to employees in lower brackets."

State Leaders Present

The meeting last night was sponsored by Orange county chapter No. 34 and the State Relief chapter No. 63, of the State Employees' association. Harry Gerhart, director of state relief in the county, was in charge of the meeting and introduced the speaker. Special guests were B. C. Switzer, of San Bernardino, regional director of the state personnel board in the 19th Congressional district, and Herbert V. Walker, of Los Angeles, state president of the employees' association.

Cutaway of one of the American Airline's Flagship "Skysleepers" showing the spacious arrangements is pictured above. The plane is one of the many attractions that will be exhibited at the second annual free air show in Santa Ana at the Eddie Martin Airport, Sunday, June 19. The plane shown above has a wingspread of 95 feet, and a cruising range of 2000 miles. In the first section is the pilot's cockpit. The second section contains mail and luggage. The third section is the sky room. The fourth, fifth, and sixth show passengers playing cards, talking and smoking while the stewardess is making up the forward berths. The seventh section shows the ladies lounge, dressing room and lavatory. The rear compartments are for luggage and coats.

DOUGLAS AIRCRAFT CONCERN TO SEND HUGE PLANE TO S. A.

The biggest builder of airplanes in the world today promised solid backing of its great facilities to make an outstanding success of Santa Ana's second annual free air show, to be held on Sunday, June 19, at the Eddie Martin Airport.

The Douglas Aircraft corporation of Clover Field, Santa Monica, will participate in the free air show, and also will do everything in its power to make the event a big success.

Will Bring "Sleeper"

Whole-hearted cooperation of the Douglas company was secured by W. F. Cuddy, general chairman of the show, Secretary Howard L. Wood of the Chamber of Commerce, and Dale Decker, show director, who conferred with high officials of the company.

D. C. Smith, president of American Airlines has agreed to send down one of the huge Douglas D. C. sleepers, which will be on display. A new transport plane also may be brought to the local air show, which is sponsored by the chamber of commerce and the City of Santa Ana.

Others Now Expected

As a result of the cooperation of the Douglas company, it is believed that all the big western manufacturers will exhibit at the show. The chamber of commerce now is consulting with Consolidated, of San Diego; Vultee, of Downey; Boeing, of Seattle; N. American, of Inglewood; Lockheed, of Burbank, Fairchild, Aerona, and many other prominent manufacturers, with the view of taking part in the colorful show.

It was announced that the Timm aircraft company, which the chamber of commerce hopes will locate in Santa Ana, has entered the show and will display the new two-motored feeder type plane. This plane is the first transport built with the new tricycle landing gear.

The Harlow Aircraft corporation will fly one of its new all-metal, four-passenger ships to the show. Tests on the new plane are being completed this week. There is a possibility that a group of Santa Ana men may be interested in manufacture of this ship locally.

TOWNSENDITES NUMBER 1,918

If Townsend party registration in Orange county were a criterion for the state, that party would win a place on the August primary ballot, it was shown today as County Clerk B. J. Smith forwarded registration totals, showing 65,820 voters, to the secretary of state, in conformity with the law requiring a June report of registration.

But, while Townsend registration in Orange county, which reached 1918, was well above the necessary one per cent of the Orange county vote cast in the last gubernatorial contest, Townsend petitions to participate in the primary, which was an alternative method provided for getting on the ballot failed to reach the 10 per cent required in that method.

By State at Large

The 1936 vote on governor in the county was 50,438. Townsend petitions totaled 4723 signatures, or less than the 5043 which would represent 10 per cent of the vote. Townsend registration of 1918 more than tripled the one per cent mark, 504.

However, the registration and the petitions are not counted by counties, but by the state at large, so the local figures provide no more than an indication, Clerk Smith pointed out. Inasmuch as there has been almost no activity in registering or circulating petitions for the Townsend party in northern California, Smith has been advised by clerks of the northern counties, it appeared that the activity in the southern counties might not be enough to qualify the party for a place on the ballot. A total of about 23,000 registrations for the state would be required, said Smith.

Haste in Prospect

The registration totals stand as of June 6, and the Townsend petitions, as well as registration, results can be canvassed in time to prepare the election ballots. If it is found that the Townsend party did not qualify, the nearly 2000 registered thus in Orange county must make haste to rejoin other parties, if they participate in the primary.

Present registration totals show a gain of nearly 3000 since June, 1936, when the total was 62,833. Democratic and Republican registration gains were approximately equal, the Republicans picking up 490 and the Democrats 471. Present totals give the Democrats 33,909, the Republicans 28,121, a lead of 5788.

Other totals show the Communists dropped from 6 to 3 in the county; Nonpartisan 351, Prohibition 284, Socialist 70, Independent 33, Progressive 25, decline to state 1106.

Former S. A. Youth Receives Honors

Richard Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Foster, who reside at 600 South Clementine street, Anaheim, has been accorded signal honors at the University of California. Recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, he was graduated this year cum laude.

A graduate of Santa Ana high school and junior college, Foster intends to return to the university this fall for graduate work on a master's degree. The youth's father is employed in the city engineer's office in Anaheim.

Glendale Woman Speaks Tomorrow

Miss Mary A. Warren, of Glendale, well known in real estate circles for her ability as a speaker, will address the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Realty board at the Rossmore cafe at noon tomorrow.

This was the announcement today of Mrs. Marie Gothard, secretary of the board, who stated that Miss Warren was the winner of the second prize in a "home town speech contest" sponsored by the state organization last year. Miss Warren will talk on "Selling Yourself."

Residents of 3 States to Picnic

Annual picnic reunion of all former residents of Virginia, North and South Carolina, and Georgia will be held Saturday, at Sycamore Grove park, Los Angeles.

Each state will have a separate meeting place in the park and will open its own county registers but will join for an entertainment program to be presented following the basket picnic dinner hour.

CHANGE TIME FOR FIELD DAY OF COUNTY WALNUT GROWERS

The Orange County Walnut Growers' field day, usually held this month just prior to the spray campaign for the control of walnut codling moth, will instead be conducted ahead of the next walnut harvest period, according to Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg.

Program committee, headed by Rufus Porter, chairman of the Farm Bureau Walnut department, considers the need for emphasis on rapid harvesting methods more timely this season, therefore the change.

"Past control methods and timing which have been featured in previous field days for 15 years have been well established in Orange county," Wahlberg said. "Growers generally recognize the value and importance of pest control as a means of protecting the fruit."

"Many growers, however, are still losing heavily because of delayed harvesting methods that reduce the grades of the nuts. An endeavor will be made this year at the field day to emphasize the value of quick harvesting methods. Much data has been compiled by the Agricultural Extension service and the Walnut association showing greater returns from better harvesting methods."

The field day will be held sometime in August, prior to the harvest period. Date will be announced later by the farm advisor's office.

An exodus at different days during the current week of osteopathic physicians of Orange county, is occasioned by the annual convention of California Osteopathic association, in session from Wednesday until Saturday at Hotel Coronado.

Dr. and Mrs. Horace Leecing of this city are at Coronado for the entire convention program. Dr. A. E. Vallier of this city, president of the Orange county association and Dr. Cook of La Habra left this morning to attend some of the events. Dr. Peryl Magill and her sister, Miss Julia Magill also took their departure today and will remain for post-convention gayeties, including a fishing trip to the Coronado Islands, which will include also Dr. Julia E. Hinrichs, Dr. Raymond W. Tibbott of Santa Ana, and Dr. Ernest Glesner of Buena Park, who are to attend Saturday convention sessions.

Vandals Damage Canyon Cabin

Hoodlums entered the Silverado canyon cabin of I. O. Frantz, 1137 East 11th street, Long Beach, during the past few days and caused much damage, he told Deputy Sheriff Harvey Gulick last night. Frantz asked that an officer be assigned to assist him in an investigation Saturday or Sunday when he will be at the cabin again. He made the report, he was enroute to Long Beach. The hoodlums took two padlocks from doors, smashed eight or nine windows and took 50 cancelled checks which had been written on the First National Bank of Orange.

Surprise Affair Held for Couple

ORANGE, June 9.—When Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Daniel returned from Los Angeles Tuesday evening to their new home at 137 North Main street, they were surprised to find a group of friends gathered for a housewarming. After an evening spent playing amusing games, the guests served refreshments which they had brought along.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. James Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Mac McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Hogen, all of Santa Ana. Orange guests were Mr. and Mrs. Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Tueblood, Ms. Ada Tueblood, Robert Daniel, Miss Grace Tueblood, Herschel Welty, Miss Fern Barnes, Charles Looney, Miss Marjorie Spellman, Miss Wanda Jean Looney, David Looney jr. and Marvin Stewart.

Police News

Convicted in Brea township on a charge of drunk driving, Elmer E. Potes, 38, 139 West Whiting street, Fullerton, was brought to county jail last night to begin serving a 75-day term.

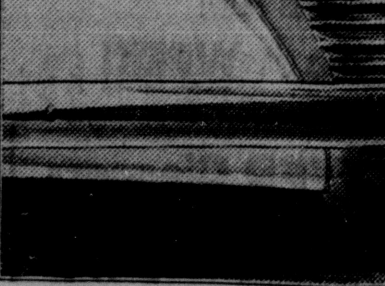

Allegation that he drove his car through a boulevard stop landed Clinton Ingrham, 33, Los Angeles Negro, in county jail last night. He was arrested by California Highway Officer Horace Inge in San Juan Capistrano township.

Henry Negley, Los Angeles, and Mary Menefee, Covina, each was fined $8 for speeding when they pleaded guilty before City Judge J. G. Mitchell yesterday. E. E. Cason, Santa Ana, boulevard stop violator, and James Etheridge, Los Angeles, stop signal violator, each was fined $2.

Clyde G. Wierman, 25, 819 North Sabina, Anaheim, was arrested by Capt. R. S. Elliott last night when he appeared voluntarily at police headquarters here to face a charge he failed to appear before City Judge J. G. Mitchell on a speeding charge. Arrested March 23 by Officer Francis Norton for allegedly driving 55 miles per hour in the 25-mile zone of North Main at 29th, Wierman was ordered to appear April 1 but "fooled" the judge and failed to arrive in court at all.

So the judge "fooled" Wierman and issued a bench warrant for his arrest. After being booked at county jail last night, Wierman furnished $20 bail to guarantee his appearance in court June 17 at 10 a. m. and was released.

NATIONALLY-KNOWN LECTURER TO TALK AT S. A. CONVENTION

George Dewey Blomgren, of Detroit, Mich., foreign news correspondent, and nationally-known evangelist and lecturer, will be the speaker tonight and tomorrow night in the concluding programs of the five-day convention of the Christian Constitutionals at the Ebell clubhouse. Both sessions will open at 7:30 p. m.

Tonight Blomgren will discuss the "War Drama of the Orient" and tomorrow night he will tell of being "In Definite Difficulties in Italy and How I Got Out."

Nations Responsible

Last year Blomgren covered 30,000 miles in war-torn China. In his talk tonight, which is open to the public, Blomgren will seek to answer the questions of why Japan is marching on China, what nations are apparently responsible for Japan's successful aggression, and how this conflict will lead to a world war. He discusses the dark clouds of serious international complications now hanging over all the Orient.

Friday night Blomgren will tell of his arrest and escape from the hands of Mussolini's private detectives, and how close he came to exile to Mussolini's penal island, the Isle of Forgotten Men.

He gives clear, concise and conclusive facts concerning the startling political and religious conditions in the world today.

RECORDINGS OF TALKS HEARD

Recordings of the speeches made at the meeting of the Smedley chapter Number One were the hit of the evening at last night's gathering of the club at Danigers.

The record, made under the direction of H. O. Ensign, were played back after the main part of the program and took the place of the individual critics.

The entire program, which was under the direction of toastmaster David Cherry, was extemporaneous. Toastmasters voted first place to Arthur Kruger for his humorous talk entitled "A Plan To End All Plans."

Kruger told of a new planned economy which put a premium on being able to work and which reverses the present order of economics.

Ralph Smedley took second honors with "After 1847—What?" The purpose of the speech, was to show that it does not matter what you say but how you say it. "The Range" by Robert Scove was a talk about the great mining district of northern Minnesota.

Dr. J. P. Davis told of a new method used in certain operations and W. O. Mendenhall spoke on "What June Means To Me." C. H. Holles was the guest of Dr. J. P. Davis.

Dance Team Presents Benefit Show

Presented under the sponsorship of lodge No. 299, Alianza Hispano-Americana, the dance team of Carlos Ortega and Sarita Lopez, shown above, will be the feature attraction on a charity show to be presented at the Fullerton high school auditorium at 8 p. m. June 15. Ortega is a resident of Brea.

FAMOUS TEAM TO PERFORM IN FULLERTON SHOW ON JUNE 15

Home from Arizona after a successful season of featured dancing at the Westward Hotel in Tucson, Carlos Ortega of Brea is deep in plans for a charity show which he will direct Wednesday, June 15 at 8 p. m. in Fullerton high school auditorium, it was announced today.

Under auspices of lodge No. 299, Alianza Hispano-Americana, the show will be given to raise proceeds for the organization's work throughout Orange county. Titled "La Fiesta Rey del Capote," the affair will include Mexican music and dances in colorful variety, it was said. Manuel M. Maytorena, known as Mexico's greatest tenor, will sing. There will be dances by that famous team of Carlos Ortega and Sarita Lopez of Los Angeles, members of Ula Wolfe's Enchantadores who just concluded a season in Arizona. Other members of the Enchantadores will take part in the program.

Ortega, "El Rey del Capote" (King of the Capote) is well known in this community, where he has made his home for several years. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Ortega of Brea. He has been promised the cooperation of Fullerton's civic officials and many prominent citizens in carrying out plans for the show, it was said today. Donato Cruz is president of the program committee, and Ray Juarez of No. Spadra road, Fullerton, is secretary of the lodge.

LISTS ARTISTS IN NEW APPEAL

With the goal of 1000 members as sponsors of the Orange county concert series for the 1938-39 season less than 100 members away, Charles L. Pritchard, chairman of the board of directors of the Santa Ana Musical Arts club, today issued the following appeal:

"With the goal so near, the music lovers are putting every effort forward to hearing in the coming season, Ezio Pinza, world renowned bass of the Metropolitan in addition to the other five concerts which are Tipica orchestra of Mexico City, being a program of romance and color of old Mexico; Martin, a sensation of the concert, radio and motion picture world with a charming personality; Kathryn Meisle, leading contralto of the Metropolitan opera; Casadesu, the great French pianist with a winning personality and a pianist who moves an audience to wild ovation, and Curtis String quartet, acclaimed both in Europe and America as the most outstanding ensemble ever offered in concert that create the noble tone of an organ.

Best Efforts in Play
"I personally, do not think that we realize what Mr. Behrmer is offering to help build the culture of our community to endeavor to bring these world known artists to us. He is using his best efforts to give to Orange county, lovers of music and art, artists that could not be obtained only through his grand offer.

"To be able to have this series it is necessary that memberships be taken at once with $1.00 deposit per membership made at the Santa Ana Book store with the remaining $4 or $5 payable by October 20, 1938.

Members Lend Aid
"Will you join the 900 who have made their deposits so to carry over the top the 1000 membership which will assure this complete series for 1938-1939. Memberships are $5 and $6 which covers reserved seats for full series. Student memberships are $3.

"Santa Ana Musical Arts club members are working 100 per cent in this great effort to bring this musical series within reach of our youth, as well as the community."

TALBERT

DO FALSE TEETH

Rock, Slide or Slip?

FASTEETH, a new, greatly improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth firm and comfortable all day. Cannot slide, slip, rock or pop-out. No gummy, soapy, pasty taste or feeling, because FASTEETH is alkaline. Makes breath sweet and pleasant. Get FASTEETH at any drug store. Accept no substitute.

"SO MAD HE HAD A FIT," QUITE TRUE, PSYCHIATRIST DECLARES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—(UP)—There is sound scientific foundation for the old saying that he was "so mad he had a fit," Dr. Ralph C. Hamill of Chicago reported yesterday to the convention of the American Psychiatric Association.

OCEANVIEW

OCEANVIEW, June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Rex King and Dick Turner are leaving in a few days to spend their vacation in Oregon.

R. L. Henry is employed for a month in the Bose general merchandise store here while the Bose family is on an eastern trip.

Mrs. A. Moynagh was at Silverado canyon recently in company with a group of women from an Orange bank where she is employed.

Extensive remodeling work which is under way on the H. E. Dotson residence on "B" street is almost completed.

Gus Worthing, accompanied by his mother from Laguna Beach, took a trip Sunday, visiting at San Fernando and at Alhambra with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hoyle and at Bell with the Rev. and Mrs. Bob Worthing.

Mrs. Grace Wormsford, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, friends of Huntington Beach, attended the Masonic steak bake held at Irvine Park.

Mrs. Essie Robertson has entertained as her guest her sister, Mrs. Annie Stewart, of Coalinga, who came.

Children who have epileptic attacks usually have these fits or convulsions because they are angry and because they have learned they must not express their anger, Dr. Hamill said.

Balk at "Showing"

"Anger seems close to the surface in these children," he said. "But they don't want to express it openly."

Criticism of the psychiatrist who serves as alienist in court was discussed before a section of the convention.

"Unfortunately," said Dr. Edward H. Williams of Los Angeles, "we psychiatrists seem to be peculiarly attractive to the critics. The reason, I believe, is because our defense armor seems to be so vulnerable."

Seeks Scientific Understanding

Dr. Paul Schilder, New York City, discussed the psychological and physiological factors underlying hysteria. Dr. Harry Stack Sullivan of New York followed with an outline of therapy and pseudo therapy in psychiatry.

Dr. Garland H. Pace of the Utah State hospital pleaded with psychiatrists to help educate the public to more scientific understanding of sex offenses.

also spent part time at Costa Mesa with another sister, Mrs. Stone. Annie Stewart, of Coalinga, who came.

PLACENTIA PUPILS HOLD FINAL EXERCISES

STUDENTS GET CIVIC AWARDS

PLACENTIA, June 9.—Forty-nine students of the eighth grade of the Bradford school of the Placentia Unified district last night were awarded diplomas at exercises.

Awards Presented
Betty Lou McGinnis won the H. S. Leavitt memorial medal, the chamber of commerce presentation for the student showing most marked improvement. Dorothy Welch and James Power won the American Legion awards. Frank Rosapaw presented the Leavitt award and Leon Gilliland the other two.

In arranging for the program, Mrs. Lucy Robinson took charge. After the prelude and procession, played by Lois Schroeder, and the invocation by the Rev. Eugene Elmore, the class gave the flag salute; the school orchestra then played "Petite Suite de Ballet." Ernest Uzes directed.

Class Gives Play
"Class Adventurers" was the title of the class presentation, given under direction of Miss Bessie E. Clarke, A. D. Foster, superintendent. The class presented their song, "Marching With the Heroes," with Mrs. Florence Arnold directing. After presentation of the awards, Bruce Miller, principal of the school, presented the class to Warren Bradford, president of the board of trustees, who gave the members their diplomas.

List of Graduates
Members of the class included Beverly Adams, Rosabelle Apalattini, Lovada Appman, Emily Jane Beard, Bill Cruz Belasquez, Ruth Benedict, Margaret Jean Bradford, Chester Bryant, Mildred Cantrell, Elsie Maxine Carson, Mayme Frances Dadds, Marjorie Mae Elmore, Charles Edward Craeber, Roy L. ## Child Star To Graduate

HOLLYWOOD, June 9.—(UP)—Billy Cook, 11, interrupted a promising movie career today to go back to the red brick Lomitas grammar school near Palo Alto, Calif., and be graduated.

The lad had interrupted his studies a year ago to come to Hollywood after showing unusual ability in school theatricals. He quickly became a success on a radio program, and then was chosen for a high salaried child role in a picture, "Men With Wings."

He will return to the movies and continue his studies under a special studio teacher.

Flying Explorer Approaches Goal

SAN DIEGO, June 9.—(UP)—Richard Archbold, and five companions, flying non-stop from Wake Island to Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea, were 318 miles from their destination at 9:50 a. m. today.

Barney Boyd, operator of Archbold's base radio station here said a position report picked up from the plane gave its speed as 134 knots per hour at the time, and said the fliers had traversed 1700 miles since leaving Wake at 9:02 p. m. yesterday.

ANAHEIM DISTRICT PIONEERS HOLD PICNIC NEXT SATURDAY

ANAHEIM, June 9.—Early days of Anaheim will be relived again in memory Saturday when 150 pioneers of this community are expected at the annual Pioneer day picnic to be held at Anaheim city park.

Formerly sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution, the event this year is being left entirely in the hands of the pioneers themselves, with Miss Frances Backs and Mrs. A. L. Lewis heading arrangements.

Discussion Saturday is expected to result in an organization which will carry the responsibility for staging the picnics in the future. Invitations are sent only to pioneers living out of town, with about 120 sent out, since those living here are expected to be present with their basket lunches.

Mrs. Millbrat Wins Divorce Suit

Mrs. Marguerite Millbrat, who admitted that her youngest child is a son of Orville H. Wright, Denver taxi cab driver, won her divorce suit today in Superior court. Mrs. E. Millbrat, and was granted a decree by Superior Judge G. K. Scovel at termination of the trial late yesterday.

Mrs. Millbrat charged her husband with cruelty. In defense of his charges against her conduct with Wright, she testified that Wright had attacked and overpowered her while she was attending a party in his hotel room in a September 22, 1936. She had been in Colorado since June of that year, and returned to Orange county in February, 1937. Her child was born July 5, 1937.

Custody of an older child was awarded to Millbrat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Millbrat Sr., each parent being allowed the right to visit the child at reasonable times. The husband was ordered to pay $100 fees of his wife's attorney, and $25 per month for support of the child placed in his parents' custody.

Pickering Seeks 4 Killer Dogs

Four killer dogs were being hunted in the Costa Mesa district today by Poundmaster Harold Pickering and sheriff's officers following an investigation which laid the blame for the disappearance of a thoroughbred riding colt upon them.

The colt disappeared from the De Wolf ranch, Costa Mesa, several days ago while the De Wolfs were visiting at Lake Arrowhead and Deputy Sheriff Steve Duhart and Ives Brown were called upon to investigate the disappearance as possible result of grand theft by someone. Yesterday, it was revealed that dogs had killed the colt and eaten it. De Wolf reported seeing four mammoth dogs chasing his horses recently.

HELD AFTER MELEE
Salio Segalo, Jr., 604 Stafford who assertedly was drunk and fighting last night, was arrested at Sixth and Main streets at 1:20 a. m. today by Santa Ana officers and booked at county jail on a drunk charge. Capt. R. S. Elliott reported he took a knife from Segalo's hip-pocket at 1 a. m. Segalo reportedly had several small cuts on his hands.

TOLD OF ILLNESS
At request of F. E. Haag, 712 East Third, Santa Ana police relayed a message via the Huntington Park police at 1:55 a. m. today, advising Frances Morehouse 3635 East 61st place, to come here at once because of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. C. P. Namara, 712 East Third.

IMPOSTORS SUGHT
Two men reported using the name of the Salvation Army to solicit clothing in and near the 1100-block of South Garvey, were sought unsuccessfully yesterday. Army officials here said the men were not connected with the Army and asked the investigation.

LETTERS ARE STOLEN
While John Neuschaffer, Route 1, Box 211, Santa Ana, was absent from home Tuesday, someone stole at least two letters, one containing an $8 check, from his mailbox, he told sheriff's officers. Yesterday he advised Deputy Sheriff James Workman that he did not wish a continuation of the investigation as he believes a child took the letters and he may be able to recover them. He stopped payment on the check at a Fresno bank from which it had been sent.

HUNT PARK THIEVES
Santa Ana citizens have been victimized by thieves at Santiago park during the past two weeks, it was revealed today by Santa Ana police. Seven long tiers of chopped and stacked wood used by the public in picnicking at the park were stolen by someone who hauled the wood away, according to report of Lieutenant B. A. Hershey. An investigation will be made.

DOG ORDERED "HELD"
After treating Malcolm Green, 805 Bush street, for a dog bite yesterday afternoon, Dr. Robert S. Wade advised that the dog should be tied up for 10 days to determine whether he is a victim of rabies. Green contacted police, alleging a dog at 824 East Third, was the one which bit him. Police notified Poundmaster Harold Pickering who said he would take action at once.

DIVORCE IS ASKED
Mrs. Betty Grisham asked a divorce from Louis Grisham in a divorce complaint on file today in superior court, charging desertion and nonsupport.

$125 QUILT STOLEN
Left in an unlocked automobile, a dark blue and white, crocheted quilt with diamond pattern and valued at $125, was stolen recently from Mrs. William Jones, 108 Hickory street, she informed Santa Ana officers. She was at the Ebeli clubhouse when the theft occurred.

CAPTIVE HAS $272
When Pablo Correo, 25, of 415 South Kroeger, Anaheim, was booked at county jail by immigration officers yesterday on a charge he entered the United States illegally, he had in his possession $7 in cash and $265 worth of Postal Savings bonds which he had earned while here, according to officials. Matilde Vega, 33, 1104 North Los Angeles street, Anaheim, booked at the same time on the same charge, had only an empty purse.

FOOD SALE PLANNED
Cakes, pies, salads, beans and rolls that is the itinerary of the Service class of the Advent Christian church at their Cooked Food Sale Saturday at 204 North Broadway in Santa Ana. The sale will start at 9:30 a. m. and continue throughout the day, the Service class sponsors stated today.

APPOINT CHIEF IN PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, June 9.—Joe Panchon was chosen as full time fire chief of Placentia by the city council this week. He has been acting chief since the death of Horace Lucy.

The budget was tentatively set at $12,000, and if formally adopted will mean a raise of 10 percent in tax rates. A contract was signed with the state for acceptance of gas tax money to be used in Placentia for the continued widening of Santa Fe avenue, west of Melrose street.

ARRANGE FUNERAL OF OLAF ERICKSON

Resident of Santa Ana for the last 18 years during the beet harvest seasons, Olaf Erickson, 74, a foreman for the Holly Sugar company, passed away today at Santa Ana Valley hospital after an illness of two weeks.

Foreman At Factory
Mr. Erickson, who made his home here at 222 Central avenue, maintained a permanent home at 279 Coleridge street, San Francisco. Foreman in the lime kiln department of the sugar factory, Mr. Erickson had been employed by Holly Sugar Co. during the past 18 years.

Born at Bergen, Norway, he joined the sugar firm when he first came to California. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Maggie Erickson; two sons, John E. Erickson, of Oakdale, Calif., and Lester F. Erickson, of Crockett, Calif.; one daughter, Mrs. Florence M. Penrose, of San Francisco, and one sister, Mrs. Susie Clark, of Austin, Minn.

Funeral services, with the Rev. Harry Evan Owings, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating, will be held at Winkler Memorial chapel Saturday at 10 a. m. Interment will be held at San Francisco. Mr. Erickson was a member of the First Baptist church here.

Breakfasters Are Entertained

Vocal solos by Bruce Buell and dance numbers by his sister, Lorle Buell, were presented at the regular meeting of the Santa Ana Breakfast club at 7:30 a. m. today at the Main cafeteria. The performers were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. L. L. Buell.

Rays Ramon was program chairman for the meeting and introduced the entertainers. Hunter Leach presided at the meeting.

DIVORCE IS ASKED
Mrs. Betty Grisham asked a divorce from Louis Grisham in a divorce complaint on file today in superior court, charging desertion and nonsupport.

Mrs. Shipley And Beach Man Marry

WESTMINSTER, June 9.—Announcement of the recent marriage of Mrs. Josephine Shipley, of Westminster, and William Brawn, Long Beach business man, has been made. The couple will make their home in Long Beach, where Mr. Brawn is proprietor of a hardware business.

The marriage took place in Anaheim, being an evening affair in the garden of the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis. Mr. and Mrs. B. Best, of Long Beach, son-in-law and daughter of the bride, were the attendants.

The bride was attired in a chic suit of rose color with accessories of luggage tan and white. Mr. and Mrs. Brawn are honeymooning at Catalina island.

EMERGENCY CALL
LAGUNA BEACH, June 9.—In two recent surprise tests, no advance notice of which has been given, American Legion Post No. 22 of Laguna Beach responded in remarkable fashion to the "emergency" signal of three bomb-rockets in rapid succession, summoning all Legionnaires to the rallying post at fire headquarters.

Developed in harmony with county and statewide emergency programs, as part of the Legion's nation-wide setup, the two surprise calls, last of which was on Tuesday night, demonstrated the local post's preparedness for any calamity of sudden visitation that might require co-ordination of all facilities involved. The tests, unheralded, will be repeated at irregular intervals. Commander Roscoe Lloyd Babcock was in charge of recent summons.

FOOD SALE PLANNED

Cakes, pies, salads, beans and rolls that is the itinerary of the Service class of the Advent Christian church at their Cooked Food Sale Saturday at 204 North Broadway in Santa Ana. The sale will start at 9:30 a. m. and continue throughout the day, the Service class sponsors stated today.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS TAKE OVER LAGUNA CIVIC AFFAIRS

LAGUNA BEACH, June 9.—Before a crowd of nearly 200 people, the Laguna High school seniors, to whom had been turned over the operation of all city offices for one day, rendered accounting last night at Community theater, where the one-day "city council" sat in session.

Present in the audience were Mayor Howard G. Heisler, members of the city council, and the officials whose duties for the day had been usurped by the seniors, due to graduate tomorrow. Many novel and unusual suggestions were advanced by the temporary officials.

Reports were rendered and freely criticized by a good-natured group of hecklers. Giving reports were Mayor Don Langston, Police Commissioner George Brandt, Martin Benson, water and light commissioner, Dale Mickelwaite, streets and parks, and George Henry, commissioner of health and safety.

Various "ordinances" were suggested, including one calling for discouragement of an alleged practice of tossing trash on the next-door lot, the owner of which, in turn, repeated the process, until, with accumulations acquired en route, the trash reached the end of a given block. Such multiple handling was deplored, and the matter referred to the day-to-day consideration of the regular city council.

Put On Hat, 'Rod'—He Does; Off They Fly to N. Y.

"Put on your hat, Rod, we're going to New York." And "Rod" did just that.

The invitation was offered by Eddie Martin, local pilot and accepted by Rodney Bason, district manager of the Southern California Edison company, this morning as he was engaged in his work at his office. Less than 10 minutes after the invitation was presented, the two men were on their way to the local airport.

Here they were met by R. C. McMillen of Los Angeles, owner of the McMillen Petroleum company, owner of the Waco cabin plane that took off at noon today for the nation's metropolis.

In New York the party will meet friends of McMillen, landing from England tomorrow, and will return to Santa Ana Sunday. The party will remain on the west coast until the conclusion of the Santa Ana Air show, June 13, at which time they will be flown back to New York by Martin.

Emergency Call Of Post Success

LAGUNA BEACH, June 9.—In two recent surprise tests, no advance notice of which has been given, American Legion Post No. 22 of Laguna Beach responded in remarkable fashion to the "emergency" signal of three bomb-rockets in rapid succession, summoning all Legionnaires to the rallying post at fire headquarters.

Developed in harmony with county and statewide emergency programs, as part of the Legion's nation-wide setup, the two surprise calls, last of which was on Tuesday night, demonstrated the local post's preparedness for any calamity of sudden visitation that might require co-ordination of all facilities involved. The tests, unheralded, will be repeated at irregular intervals. Commander Roscoe Lloyd Babcock was in charge of recent summons.

CLASS ENTERTAINED
SPRINGDALE, June 9.—Mrs. George Crane, with Mrs. R. Williams and Mrs. Overberry as co-hostesses, entertained members of the Harvesters Sunday school class of the Huntington Beach Methodist church at her Springdale home Tuesday. Roger Dean Graham, grandson of Mrs. Crane, entertained with accordion numbers.

Those participating were the Rev. and Mrs. John Woodside, Mr. and Mrs. Parks, Miss Mary Turner, Miss Lago, Mesdames Bowler, Walker, Mildred Reindour, Lefuse, Anna Graham, Marjorie, class teacher, Mrs. Ethel Warner, a visitor, Mrs. Houser, Mrs. Reilly, Garden Grove; Mrs. T. R. Canady, Midway City, and the co-hostesses, Mrs. Overberry, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Crane.

GRADUATE HONORED

OCEANVIEW, June 9.—Miss Phyllis Brush, a member of the graduating class of Oceanview school, was honored at an evening garden party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Murray, with ice cream and cake served, during the refreshment hour. Included at the party were members of the Ross and Tate families of Irvine, and of the Brush and Murray families of Oceanview.

Dinner Held By Club At Laguna

GARDEN GROVE, June 9.—Annual guest night was observed Tuesday by members of the Junior Woman's Civic club when they entertained with a dinner party at the Los Andas cafe in Laguna Beach. Included in the guest list were members of the cast of the play, "Big Hearted Herbert."

A circus theme was carried out in the table decorations. A miniature merry-go-round centered the table and small clowns were used as favors. Bridge was the diversion of the evening, with prizes for high score going to Miss Faure Virgin and Floyd Wildermuth.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Goddard, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gedney, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Lake, Mrs. W. O. Broady, Mrs. F. S. ## DINNER HONORS BEACH TEACHER

HUNTINGTON BEACH, June 9.—With the traditional sorority panny wedding ring centering the dinner table at a wedding shower, Mrs. Mills Whittaker and Miss Martha Trafford, art instructor at the high school, honored Miss Jessie Campbell, home economics teacher at the Whittaker home this week.

A heart of flowers centering the table was reflected in a mirror. Ribbons connected the place cards with the panny wedding ring, and at the close of the dinner hour each guest removed her card to receive a corsage of pansies from the ring.

Many lovely gifts useful to a bride in her new home were showered on the honoree. Miss Campbell will become the bride of Clarence Ameson, of Cooperstown, N. D., at an early autumn wedding which will take place at Cavalier, N. D. The couple will reside in Cooperstown.

Miss Campbell is the daughter of Mrs. Warner Campbell, of Pasadena. She is a Kappa Alpha Theta of the University of North Dakota and of the University of Oregon at Corvallis. She has been engaged as the home economics instructor in the local high school for the last year.

Attending the shower were the honoree, the hostesses, Ada Marie Bowers, Edna Dean Condon, Madge Fox, Velma Morrell, Phyllis Jamison, Florence Vanna, Margaret Swingle, Ruth Smith, Marian Sherman, Dale Smith, Lucille Richardson, Gladys Jones, Dora Down, Dorothy Lewis, Ruth Bates, Bobby Channess, Agnes Smith, Fern Greenwald, Mrs. Ronald Shepherd, Mrs. L. S. Channess.

Picnic Arranged By Club Members

GARDEN GROVE, June 9.—Plans for a picnic for members and their families July 12 at Irvine park were made at the meeting of the Three 'n' Twenty club Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Clifton Bryan. Mrs. R. R. Rossetol was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

After a book review on interior decorating by Mrs. C. G. Crosby, two vocal numbers, "Lullaby," and "Slumber Boat," were sung by Mrs. Irvine German. A surprise feature of the afternoon was the presentation of a bathnet to Mrs. Walter Dungan from the members.

A pink and blue theme was stressed in the refreshments and nut cups in the form of baby shoes. Present were Mesdames Walter Dungan, C. G. Crosby, Wayne Holt, Irvine German, Wilbur Harper, Wesley Lamb, J. L. Mitchell, F. A. Monroe, W. W. Perkins, R. R. Rossetol, L. W. Schauer, Albert Schneider, Emmett Smith, Robert Smith, M. R. Sprinkle, Claude Wasson and Clifton Bryan.

RESIDENCE SOLD
OCEANVIEW, June 9.—F. Deeds, who recently purchased a lot on Huntington Beach boulevard across from Oceanview school and moved in a house which he remodeled, has sold the place to W. Maxey, of Liberty Park. Deeds has purchased the former commissary building at Boulevard Gardens and the quarter acre of land with it and is to remodel the building for a residence and will move his family from the Oceanview home just sold. A wrecking yard will be maintained by Deeds on the Boulevard Garden place.

GRADUATE HONORED

EACH CAR MUST BEAR LICENSE

Every motor car in the state, if operated at all, must carry license plates purchased from the state motor vehicle department.

Capt. C. H. Meehan, head of the California highway patrol in Orange county, revealed today in answering a series of questions asked by California motorists.

"Some big boys in our neighborhood pass their spare time working on old cars which they buy to experiment with," said one motorist. "And no matter how many they have, they seem to always use but one set of license plates. Why is this permitted?"

Must Be "Cleared"

"If you will notify the authorities, this will be stopped promptly," the captain stated. "Each vehicle must be cleared by the department of motor vehicles when it is sold or dismantled."

Other questions with answers presented by Captain Meehan follow:

Please explain why it is that certain license plates do not have any identification showing the year they were issued? Plates with a symbol of a diamond, square, oblong or hexagon, with the letter "E" inside the symbols are publicly owned vehicles and are exempt from the payment of license fees. Therefore the plates are issued without the year being shown as these plates are good until the car is disposed of by the branch of government operating them.

In Caravan Zone
I have a vehicle in Kern county that I wish to sell in Los Angeles county as I believe I can secure a better deal there. Someone told me I would have to pay $15 caravan fee. Is that correct? In this case you do not have to pay a caravan fee, as both counties are within zone 1. Vehicles may be transported within their own zone in California, and there are but two, for sale without such fee.

What counties are included in caravan zones? Zone one includes the counties of San Diego, Imperial, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Kern and Inyo. All other counties of the state are in zone 2.

Dinner Held By Lodge Drill Team

TUSTIN, June 9.—With their drill master, Glenn Cave, as honor guest, members of the Tustin Pythian Sisters degree staff and their husbands shared a delightful party at Swanson's this week.

Lovely bouquets of fragrant spring flowers decorated the small tables at which dinner was enjoyed at 7:30 o'clock. Prizes for high score in pitch were awarded to Mrs. Arthur Trickey and James McCalla. Mrs. Walter Peruzzi and Fred Diamond received consolation awards. Mrs. Peruzzi, staff captain, on behalf of the team, presented a number of gifts to the honor guest, Glenn Cave.

The members signed a sympathy card to be sent to one of their group, Mrs. Hazel Whitehead, who is convalescing at St. Joseph's hospital from an operation.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Arthur L. Trickey, Walter Peruzzi, Ray Dawson, Merrill Thompson, Floyd Hawkins, Louis Cox, George Furtch, J. T. Flynn, Hayden Squires, Cadett Hamilton, James McCalla, Fred Diamond, Arthur Fuller, William Darrell, Urban Buchheim, Glenn Cave and the Mesdames Virginia Forney and Rithma Yarbrough.

Mixing Bowl

BY ANN MEREDITH

It seems that efforts of "loving hands at 10" have become high fashion notes this season. You can readily believe that when you think back a few years ago when ruffled fluffs were the rage and contrast today's frankly hand-made (home-made) neck trimmings with the machine-made finish of those accessories. If you have a plain shirt-waist style dress in blue or black make one of these fascinating collars for it.

Use pale pink, pale blue or your favorite color. Buy a good grade of silk poplin, cut a pattern to fit the notched collar and lapels on the dress and make identical ones out of poplin (on the double). The trimming consists of a big flower like a camellia, made of poplin. Cut a "rabbit's ear" pattern—about 2 inches long and 1 1/4 inches at the wide part and another slightly larger. Make the ears on the double about 12 of the smaller size and 6 of the larger size. Cut a circle out of silk, size of a dollar, sew the large size ears around circle first, next, half of the smaller size ears, with the balance sewed centering around a small bunch of artificial stamens. This flower flat on lapel. This type of collar and flower will dry clean many times and look lovely after each cleaning. Material required, at least 1-2 yard of silk (better check pattern first). Taffeta would be equally lovely and cost less.

Have you any good ideas for overhauling wardrobes this season? Have you a choice family recipe? Or a new way to do some common bit of housework? We'll welcome any one of the three and exchange for your contribution a copy of our big Calory List (don't forget to include a stamped, addressed envelope, will you?)

TODAY'S RECIPES

Flank Steak Casserole

1 flank steak
2 carrots, peeled and cubed
1 onion and 1 small bunch celery
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup tomato juice
1 cup catsup
Salt, pepper and lots of chopped parsley

Cut the fat from the steak and let it sizzle out in a casserole while the steak and vegetables are prepared. Cut the steak in inch squares and prepare all vegetables. Put the steak cubes in casserole, sprinkle with flour and cover with vegetables, tomato juice and catsup. Add generous dashes of pepper and salt, cover and bake in a slow oven until the meat is tender.

Here's something grand to make for a special dessert.

Matrimony Cake

Sift 1 1/4 cups flour with 1 teaspoon soda and mix with 1 1/4 cups fine cut rolled oats. Cream 1/2 cup soft butter with 1 cup brown sugar, then mix with flour part.

1 pound dates, washed, pitted and diced, cooked with 1/2 cup sugar and 1 cup water, until thick.

Generously butter an 8 by 8 inch pan, put half of the crumb mixture in pan. Spread the date mixture on this and top with remaining crumb mixture, pressed neatly flat with a knife blade. Bake 30 minutes in a slow oven, cut in squares and serve with a spoonful of whipped cream.

Rhubarb, Canned for Winter Use
Rhubarb: skin and cut as for pie. Fill hot sterile glass jars as full as possible, pressing down hard until jars are full. Fill with cold BOILED water let stand for 15 minutes, then

'DEAD END' BOYS IN NEW THRILLER

A powerful and poignant drama which sets forth the problem of reforming bad boys into useful citizens, "Crime School" opens an engagement today at the West Coast theater with "Under Western Stars," co-starring Roy Rogers and Smiley Burnette.

The story of "Crime School" centers around a gang of boys from the New York slum district, who, spurred on by a junk dealer, launched into thievery. They are sent to a reformatory where conditions, however, become a public scandal, and the governor of the state appoints a trained social worker to investigate. Humphrey Bogart plays the role of the investigator, and the six New York boy actors who became famous as the "Dead End" boys, comprise the youngsters of the gang. Gale Page, a newcomer to the screen, has the leading feminine role.

"Under Western Stars" begins out in the far west, in the dust bowl country. It moves to Washington, D.C., with a bank when young Rogers is elected to congress on the promise that he will bring federal relief to the drought-stricken farmers. How he does in face of a big power company's opposition brings plenty of amusing and exciting situations. Short subjects include a color cartoon and World News events.

fill to overflowing and screw on tops taken from boiling bath. Store in cool dark spot. Will keep well and taste like freshly cut rhubarb.

HOLD EVERYTHING!

Britt Promised Title Match If He Pins Morelli

FORMER CHAMP FACES ROUGHER AT O. C. ARENA

Whether Alvin Britt gets a return shot at the junior heavy-weight wrestling title he lost two years ago to Dude Chick depends to a great extent on the outcome of his match tonight at the Orange County Athletic club with Tony ("Killer") Morelli.

Britt and Morelli are scheduled to wrestle two-out-of-three falls in a "finish" match.

Promoter "Bud" Levin has indicated that if Britt can defeat Morelli, he will be given another shot at the title he formerly held. Mat experts are picking Britt to win but none is optimistic enough to predict he will win in straight falls from the notorious rougher, Morelli.

Experts point out that Britt, one of the clever matmen in the game, will attempt to force Morelli into a "straight" wrestling match. He might lose the first fall and still come back to teach the Italian a lesson in real rough wrestling.

In the one hour (time limit) semi-windup, Pat O'Brien meets Ken Hollis "Speedy" LaRance, colorful French-Canadian, takes on Sgt. Bob Keneston, the Oregon marine.

In the 30-minute curtain raiser Pat O'Dowdy, former soldier in the Irish Free State Guards, wrestles Frank Clements.

Begin 'Open' Golf On Tough Denver Course

DENVER—(UP)—First reported scores of the U. S. golf championship: Ernest Nelson, Denver, 42-45-87; Verl Stinchcomb, Maysville, N. Y., 41-48-89; Zell Eaton, Oklahoma City, 41-39-80; Jerry Henderson, Salt Lake City, 42-43-85.

By HENRY McLEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

DENVER, Colo.—That wild and woolly golf scramble—the National Open championship—started here in the wild and woolly West today. Over fairways as narrow as the mountain trails that pierce the nearby Rockies, over traps as treacherous as the wily redskins, and over rough as dense as the native forest, 167 amateur and professional golfers sought the blue ribbon of golf.

For three days the golfers will strive for the National Open title, to them as precious a nugget as was ever mined in the high hills that look down on the course. Eighteen holes today, the same tomorrow, and then 36 on Saturday will produce the winner.

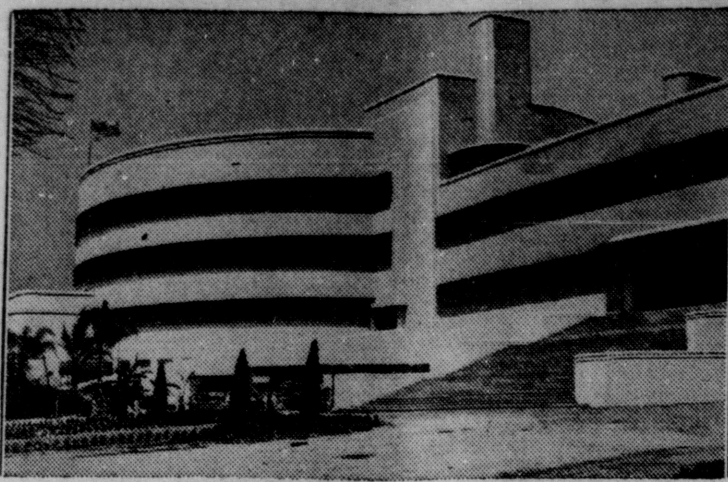

Who will be that winner? No one knows, any more than anyone knows what number will next come up on the roulette board. Because the National Open, of all the big sports events, is the most unpredictable.

Who would have picked Sam Parks Jr. to win in 1935? or Tony Manero in 1936 or Ralph Guldahl last year? Of the 167 players in this year's Open, not more than a dozen lacked faithful followers who thought they might possibly put four good rounds together and win. That brings up the question of what constitutes four good rounds at Cherry Hills.

When the tournament was given to Cherry Hills, bringing it farther west than ever in history, it was believed that the winners would have to break 280. Because Cherry Hills—the Cherry Hills its members play—is a simple golf course. But that Cherry Hills does not exist today. It has been gone over by experts and toughened. Big fairways have been made into ribbons; rough has been allowed to rear its ugly head at will; and traps have been deepened and furrowed with a calculating hand.

This is a fact: of all the players who have practiced on it, not one has had four rounds whose total breaks 290. Even Henry Picard, a co-favorite with Sam Snead and Guldahl, the defending champion, has not had four rounds under 295—and Picard has been here for weeks and has played the course fully 25 times.

Gwynne To 'Cover' Races For Register

Tom Gwynne, leading handicapper of five of the last six major racing meets on the Pacific coast, will be with The Register's sports staff again for the Hollywood Turf club's season, opening tomorrow.

His selections, as well as his daily column of turf news and gossip, will be a regular feature of this department during the 33-day card at Inglewood.

So will Gwynne's widely read Hawkeye, the "modest" sharpener who always has a ready reason whenever his sure things run out.

Gwynne has just returned from San Francisco where he led all selectors at both Bay Meadows and Tanforan. His selections appeared in the San Francisco Examiner. Last winter he finished fifth at Santa Anita; prior to that he was the No. 1 handicapper at Bay Meadows, Tanforan and Santa Anita in 1937.

Guldahl Says 'Heat' Isn't On Champions

By HENRY McLEMORE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

DENVER, Colo.—The big man in the white cap stood surrounded by the white cap seekers.

He signed his name on programs, envelopes, balls, score cards and assorted scraps of paper.

"Best luck, Ralph Guldahl—" "Sincerely, Ralph Guldahl—" "To my friend, Ralph Guldahl—" Over and over he wrote his name.

Then the candid camera boys and girls went to work on him. "Look over this way, Ralph," and "Smile, now, Ralph," and "Just one more, Ralph, please."

I watched him as he stood on the lawn of the Cherry Hills club and I thought back to last year, and the National Open at Oakland Hills in Detroit. Guldahl was almost a nobody then.

Cool, Unruffled

Three days later and Guldahl, the unknown, had completed the writing—with his woods and irons—of one of the finest dramas golf has ever known. I can see him now, with thousands of excited folk trailing in his wake, standing on the home green with the blue ribbon of golf in his grasp. Calm, cool, unruffled, he took a little comb from his pocket and smoothed down his hair before sinking the putt that gave him the Open title.

"I wanted to look all right for those newsreel cameramen," he explained later.

I talked to Guldahl yesterday. Just before he went out on the course for a final practice round. He wasn't nervous at the thought of defending his title. In fact, he scoffed at the old belief that the greatest pressure is on the titleholder.

BOEING ENTRY LIKELY CHOICE IN $2500 STAKE

By TOM GWYNNE (Register Track Correspondent)

Hollywood Park, America's newest summer racing mecca, whirls into action tomorrow, raising the curtain on a 33-day meeting which seems destined to add new and colorful chapters to turf history. More than 80,000 racegoers are expected to crush their way through the streamlined portals of this $2,500,000 course tomorrow and Saturday.

Hollywood's traditional fanfare will accompany the opening and it is expected that virtually every topline in the cinema colony will be on hand to root home a winner. Short speeches will be made by Jack Warner, chairman of the board of directors; Carleton Burke, chairman of the California Racing Board; and Jack MacKenzie, general manager. The American flag will be raised, and a 2 o'clock horses will start galloping.

Sprinters Run for $2500

The Hollywood Premiere Handicap, a six-furlong, $2500-added encounter, is the piece de resistance of Friday's racing fare. Sixteen sprinters were nominated for the engagement and it is likely that W. E. Boeing's entry of Air Chute and Roy T. will be installed slight favorites. Bill Farnsworth, top weight in the race under 123 pounds, may duck the Premiere and start in the $5000-added Inglewood Mile Saturday.

Air Chute goes into action fresh from a recent Tanforan triumph where he trimmed a shifty band of sprinters in his last start. He has been assigned 119 pounds, being heavily weighted with the fast Speed to Spare. Air Chute's stablemate, Roy T., a 3-year-old, will carry 109.

The Premiere marks the return to colors of the California sensation, Brown Jade, whose meteoric career began two years ago when she first flashed into prominence as a 2-year-old. Rested since Santa Anita, she is reported in top shape now and may figure prominently in the running under 114 pounds.

Other ranking sprinters from which the field will be drawn include Woodberry, 115; Alviso, 115; Dogaway, 115; Happy Bolivar, 113; King Saxon, 109; Murph, 108; Boss Martin, 107; Faithful Maud, 107; Count Atlas, 106; Summatta, 107, 105; and Stand in, 105.

The 33-day meeting is packed with action for the handicap brigade, the $50,000 Hollywood Gold Cup, July 16, the $50,000 3-year-old Championship, June 29, the $15,000 Hollywood Derby July 9 are the ranking fixtures of the meeting.

Lawrin, winner of the Kentucky Derby, and Dauber, victorious in the Preakness, are expected to be the two big equine headlines of the season, with prospects of several more "name" horses being shipped here from the East.

Dauber Due Sunday

Dauber's shipping schedule was moved up and he leaves tonight instead of Saturday, and will arrive at Inglewood Sunday.

A cross-section of the thoroughbred population discloses that there are a number of hard hitting handi-cap performers in all divisions and the big races of the season should not lack in lustre. About 900 horses are now assembled.

E. C. Patterson, director of the pari-mutuels, put his crew through their paces yesterday, and the mutual plant is geared for action. In keeping with all the other innovations, Patterson has installed some new ideas of his own. There has even been a provision made for the customer who walks up and buys a ticket with a big fat Corona Corona bulging from the side of his mouth.

He doesn't have to mumble the number he wants, he can merely point to the painted numbers in front of him. Another novelty Patterson introduced is the infield jockey board. No longer will the racegoers have to depend upon the

CITY NET PLAY OPENS JUNE 26

Santa Ana Tennis club officials today announced that the annual city-wide round-robin tournament will start Sunday June 26, with the entry deadline set for June 22.

Two divisions will be run off as has been the custom in recent years. Contestants will be divided into groups according to ability. Entry blanks can be signed by contacting Gordon Knight at the Santa Ana high school courts or at A's Lock and Key shop.

Some 15 or 20 members of the Santa Ana Tennis club travel to Santa Barbara Sunday June 19, to engage in match play with the Stadium club members of that city.

TWO COUNTY GAMES SCHEDULED TONIGHT

The Improving Irvine Cubs move into Tustin tonight for whack at the unbeaten leaders of the Orange County league. San Juan Capistrano invades Yorba Linda. The Costa Mesa-Placentia contest has been postponed until Friday. Laguna Beach draws a bye. The standings:

ORANGE COUNTY NIGHT LEAGUE	W. L. Pct.
Tustin	4 0 1.000
Yorba Linda	3 1 .750
San Juan Capistrano	3 2 .600
Placentia	2 2 .500

PITCHER HERRMANN TO JOIN S. F. SEALS

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The San Francisco Seals today announced they had signed Leroy Herrmann, righthanded pitcher recently released by the Hollywood club of the Pacific Coast league.

The veteran was signed to replace Oscar (Red) Miller, young southpaw who was turned back to Yakima of the Western International league.

TRUTH ABOUT YOUR HAIR

"FOR MEN who are concerned about their hair. Let's talk truth, not fiction. Let's look below the surface. Hair roots are not on the surface of the scalp, but deep in the scalp—in the region of the deep-seated blood vessels which feed the hair roots with life-essential blood. When this circulation of the blood is impaired, hair may die and premature baldness may result."

LEWIS WETHERELL OFF FOR EASTERN TENNIS

Traveling by automobile, Lewis Wetherell of Santa Ana and three other University of Southern California tennis stars left today for a summer's campaign in the country's major tournaments. The big, black-haired Santa Ana is captain of the Trojan court forces.

Twice National Public Parks champion, Wetherell will not defend his title although, for the first time, that tournament will be held in Los Angeles. Wetherell will be in the East while the event is in progress.

Before entering the National Intercollegiate championships (July 4-11) at the Merion Cricket club in Philadelphia, Wetherell and Joe Hunt will take part in the National all-clay court tourney (June 13-25) in Chicago.

Hunt, former National junior champion and at present ranked fifth in National men's singles, is favored to take the intercollegiate crown that Gene Mako won several seasons ago for the Trojans. He and Wetherell, undefeated in college doubles competition, will likely be favorites for the intercollegiate doubles title.

After the college championships, Wetherell goes to invitational tournaments at Seabright (N. Y.), Southampton (N. Y.), Rye (N. Y.) and Newport (R. I.). Following this grass court campaign, he will participate in the National doubles championships at Brookline (Mass.) and will wind up his summer competition at the National singles championships at Forest Hills.

MOSTLY RACING

I don't suppose this little sermon will do you more good than it will me, but Tom Gwynne (leading handicapper of five of the past six meets on the coast) says there's only one way to beat the races: keep your coconuts in your pocket. . . . Even the topnotch selectors do not figure to hit more than 33 per cent of the winners. Favorites win only 40 per cent of the time, 18 per cent on "off" tracks.

Flash: Santa Ana bookies are going to pay odds up to 50-1 during Inglewood's season . . . if you add 10 cents per dollar to your wagers.

Hollywood Turf club stock, available at $118 a share a week ago, is now said to be $140. (Par value $100). Officials expect no such gold-mine as Santa Anita, will be satisfied if the track pays for itself in three years. A daily handle of $400,000 will be required to break even. Santa Anita averaged $600,000 last winter.

There are 250 selling windows. With a good sense of humor, Inglewood officials also have established 250 cashier windows.

LONDON—(UP)—A team of four players was named today to represent the United States against England in the annual Wightman Cup women's tennis series which starts tomorrow.

Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, four times American champion, was left off the team for the first time in 19 years because of an arm injury she suffered yesterday.

Helen Wills Moody of San Francisco, seven times American champion and seven times winner of the all-American title, and Alice Marble, America's No. 1 player, were named to the top singles positions for the 16th annual series.

Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan of Brookline, Mass., veteran Wightman Cup campaigner, was chosen to play in the No. 3 singles position while Dorothy May Bundy of Santa Monica, who made her debut in international competition last year, will add in the doubles.

England, which has lost the last seven meetings, selected a squad of six players. Kay Stammers, left-handed player who is fourth on the British ranking list, and Margaret (Peggy) Scriven, ranked third, were named for the top singles berths. Margaret Lumb, 11th ranking British player, was given the No. 3 singles position.

The other three British players, Freda James, Evelyn Dearman and Joan Ingram, were named to the doubles teams.

The series opens tomorrow with Miss Marble playing Miss Stammers. Then Mrs. Moody meets Miss Scriven and Miss James and Miss Lumb oppose Mrs. Fabyan and Miss Marble in the last match of the day.

On Saturday the pairings will be: Lumb-Fabyan; Stammers-Moody; Scriven-Marble, and Dearman-Ingram vs. Moody-Bundy.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN'S MANAGER DIES AT 86

NEW YORK (UP)—Arthur T. Lumley, 86, oldtime sports editor and writer, who managed many of the ring greats of the bare knuckle days including the "greatest of them all"—John L. Sullivan—died in Kings county hospital last night.

Friends had sent him there a week ago when the end appeared near.

His death recalled to old timers a career highlighted in sports by his management of Sullivan during his last great victory—the 75-round bare knuckle fight with Jake Kilrain 50 years ago in Richbourg, Miss.—and in journalism by his editorship of the Police Gazette in the days when that publication's fustianic ladies graced barber shops from Sandy Hook to the Barbary Coast.

Born and educated in Brooklyn, Lumley chose journalism as a career and got his first job on the New York Sun where he soon became specializing in sports, principally boxing.

In 1878 he became editor of the Police Gazette, a post he held "off and on" for two years. Besides Sullivan, he handled Jack McAuliffe, Jack ("The Nonpareil") Dempsey, Bob Fitzsimmons, Tommy Ryan, Ike ("Spider") Weir, and others.

RECORD FOR HANK

Hank Greenberg's home run in Chicago which cleared a 15-foot center field bleacher wall, 440 feet from home plate, was the first hit there since greater Comiskey Park was opened in 1927.

Dean Of Indiana Named Stanford Basket Mentor

PALO ALTO (UP)—The appointment of Everett Dean, basketball coach at the University of Indiana for the past 13 years, as head basketball coach at Stanford University was recommended today by the Stanford university board of athletic control.

Dean will succeed John Bunn, who has guided Stanford teams to Pacific Coast conference victories in three consecutive years and who becomes Dean of men this fall.

HEAVYWEIGHTS SET FOR MONDAY CARD

With the fans clamoring for "big boys" on the fight cards of the Orange County Athletic club, Matchmaker Frankie Lockhart has booked Ernie Shive of Santa Ana and "Flash" Gordon, of Los Angeles for one of the preliminaries next Monday night.

Shive and Gordon weigh in at 200 pounds. Neither Shive nor Gordon is considered an outstanding boxer, but both are rated as tough sluggers, who prefer to stand toe-to-toe and slug it out.

Fans who have seen both battlers in action predict that whichever boy wins the match probably will

BINGHAM QUILTS AS PROTEST TO JAPAN

BOSTON (UP)—William J. Bingham, Harvard athletic director, has resigned from the American Olympic committee because the 1940 games will be held in Japan.

"I do not see how anyone could be expected to support an Olympic entourage to participate in such a country as Japan when she supports such policies as she stands for today," he said last night.

Bingham was chairman of the track and field events committee at the 1936 Olympics in Berlin.

LONG WAIT AHEAD

Wendell Wilson, Illinois athletic director, has it figured out that youngsters now in the seventh grade will be playing some of the football games scheduled in advance by the Big Ten officials at their recent meeting.

Jimmie Fidler in Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, June 9.—Settin' Around (RKO-Radio) I am always fascinated by the methods directors use to control actors working for them. Directing is a delicate business because actors are temperamental and have their full share of conceit. Acting, too, is subtle and interpretations differ widely. To begin with, then, the director faces a highly complex situation and, believe me, this shades off into a thousand variations which multiply his problems.

On this lot Roland Leé, directing "Mother Carey's Chickens," is the quiet sort who slowly explains what he wants and then points the effort by a word here and there. Mark Sandrich, director of "Carefree," is less articulate and acts out the parts himself. Also, he gives the actors great freedom in interpreting their own roles. Like a yell leader at a college football game is David Howard, directing "Border G-Man." After each successful take he lets out a yell and slaps his actors on the back. Different from all of these are De Mille, the disciplinarian; the exacting Capra, and Stahl who builds as he goes.

Whatever one may think of Hollywood's directors as artists, they all have made an art of being tactful and handling people. They have to because they have all the problems of a guardian of a psychopathic ward without the authority to occasionally use a straitjacket.

Though only 19, Anne Shirley is an experienced trouper—and like any trouper has no fear of an audience. Witness an incident on the "Mother Carey's Chickens" set today. Anne was doing a scene which was being shot by a concealed camera. She wasn't getting it quite right and the director thought she was bothered by an unusually large number of visitors on the set. He sent his assistant over to ask the onlookers to leave, explaining why. Anne heard him and countermanded the order. "It's not because there are too many people watching," she said. "It's because there aren't enough. I can't see the camera. I can't see any audience—and I don't feel like I'm acting at all. Send the people back."

Orange Resident Gets His Diploma After 35 Years

Thirty-five years is a long time to wait to get a diploma, but to C. B. Harper of Orange, who entered Santa Ana high school in 1903, but left school after coming within one unit of graduating, it is the realization of a long cherished hope.

Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson presented Harper with his diploma at the graduation exercises of the Frances E. Willard Evening school. He took a course in lip reading which gave him one unit of credit—enough to complete the high school course he started 35 years ago. Harper lives at 139 East River avenue, Orange, and was one of nine persons who was graduated at the commencement exercises.

Hospital Concert Highly Praised

Alternating with the band unit in semi-monthly concerts at the Orange County hospital, Dudley Page Harper presented the choral unit of the Federal Music Project there Tuesday evening.

The concert opened with "Carmina," a lilting Spanish waltz song. This number was followed by a whimsical choral adaptation of "Old King Cole," of nursery rhyme fame, and "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son," and two hymns, "In the Garden," and "The Old Rugged Cross," old time favorites, were given in response to requests.

The groups then sang "Aut Wiedersheim," the ever-popular Romberg composition, as its closing number. Congratulations from patients and members of the hospital staff were tendered the director and chorus followed the performance.

FIREMEN GET SUITS

MIDWAY CITY, June 9.—Through the courtesy of the Union Oil company, the Midway City State Volunteer Fire department is to have 12 complete firemen's suits and hats at their disposal, according to a message from the oil company.

GAY CONCLAVE NEARS CLOSE

As 50,000 Shriners today concluded three days of breakfasting in the street at 7th and Broadway in Los Angeles, presenting pet alligators to the city's mayor, and shocking local citizens with a portable electric chair, the Santa Ana and Orange county contingents were expected to return to their homes tonight or early tomorrow.

After choosing Baltimore for their 1939 convention city, they prepared to be entertained by Hollywood movie stars at a $500,000 electrical pageant in the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum tonight, and then leave for their homes.

Imperial Outer Guard Andrew A. D. Rahn, Minneapolis lumberman, will be installed as imperial potentate today. The office of Imperial Outer Guard, leading to Imperial Potentate in 11 years, was given to Galloway Calhoun, a Tyler, Tex., lawyer.

Red fezzed Shriners made a play-ground of downtown Los Angeles. Fifty San Francisco delegates juggled a table and chairs into the middle of the busy 7th and Broadway intersection and ate breakfast for an hour. Street cars and autos lined up for a mile in four directions. A motorman nudged the table with his car, and was handed a cup of coffee.

Firemen Get Ham and Eggs A policeman arrived and was offered pancakes. A false alarm brought 16 fire companies and the hook and ladder crew. The firemen sat down to ham and eggs.

For the pageant tonight, every studio sent its most famous stars, who included Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Sonja Henie, Warner Baxter, Freddie Bartholomew, Martha Raye, Dorothy Lamour, Richard Dix, Joe Penner, George Raft, Anita Louise, Dick Powell, Jean Parker, Jackie Cooper, Joe E. Brown and Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy. The stars will ride in the parade in open automobiles and speak over a public address system.

Father Cleared In Non-Support Case

Charges that Eugene Wiley, 27-year-old Santa Ana truck driver, abandoned his minor children and thereby failed to provide support for them, were dismissed by Judge Kenneth Morrison in Santa Ana justice court yesterday afternoon. The judge held, at the preliminary hearing for Wiley, that there was insufficient evidence to hold him to answer to superior court.

Wiley showed through testimony that he has made payments to the family for support of the children.

SANTA ANA J. C. OPENS FIRST DRIVE IN HISTORY TO FORM BAND AS REGULAR SCHOOL UNIT

Intensive campaigning for the formation of a Santa Ana Junior college band is now under way by jaycee officials, according to an announcement made today.

Heretofore the college has not had an organized band to play at football games. In previous years the high school or NYA band has been used, officials explained.

Uniforms and Instruments According to opinions expressed on the North Main street campus, a band is needed to go with the championship football team. Efforts are being made to secure the interest of county high school seniors who will be attending the college in the fall.

Director D. K. Hammond already has announced that provisions are being made in next year's budget to accommodate the expenses. New uniforms and possibly instruments will be secured it was said.

Cooperation of the college and the Quarterback club, local jaycee booster organization, has been promised.

Planned As Unit Course Besides the band, plans call for the establishment of a jaycee dance orchestra of about eight members which will be chosen from volunteers. It is hoped that rehearsals for the dance band will be held during the summer months.

The regular band will be organized as a two unit course under the direction of Alan A. Revill, music instructor. Rehearsals would be three times a week.

Two jaycee students, Fred Beecher and Bab Baines, have been instrumental in the campaign. Those interested in joining are urged to get in touch with either Beecher and Baines or Director Hammond.

Modern Teacher Of Kindergarten Is True Friend

"The truly modern kindergarten teacher is a friend, guide, and counselor of the small child."

This was the statement of Miss Clarice Marx, primary teacher in the John Muir school of Santa Ana, in an article entitled "Kindergarten," appearing in the current issue of the Sierra Educational News, the official publication of the California Teachers' Association.

Miss Marx, daughter of Mrs. Ida S. Marx, 1403 South Ross street, wrote the article from a study of the subject at the University of Southern California, in which she contrasts type of kindergarten where the teacher was the leader, with the type in which the teacher remains in the background as a friend.

POLICE USE RADIO TO CONTACT PHONES

Police radio equipment once again proved its extreme value as an efficiency unit for this modern age at 1:50 a. m. today.

Unable to contact the telephone operator at Laguna Beach at that hour, the Santa Ana operator called the sheriff's office, asked authorities to broadcast a message to Laguna Beach police. "Ask Laguna officers to contact the Laguna telephone operator and see if anything is wrong, please," said the local operator.

The radio operator at KGHX, in the sheriff's office, got busy. The radio message went through. Six minutes later, the local operator and Laguna operator were in contact.

HE GETS DIVORCE, SHE KEEPS DEEDS

W. G. Alford, 72, of South Laguna, whose divorce complaint against Bessie G. Alford charged that she married him for his property, and asked that property be had deeded to her be reconveyed to him, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce yesterday by Superior Judge G. K. Scovel. But Mrs. Alford kept the property.

The judgment disclosed that she had withdrawn her cross-complaint and allowed Alford to obtain the decree without contest, the property to be awarded to her.

STATE RAPS AT WORK EVADERS

Persons who refuse to accept work at prevailing wages, whatever those prevailing wages are, will be denied relief this year by the State Relief Administration!

That firm declaration of policy was made today in Sacramento by Harold E. Pomeroy, state relief administrator, and received commendation of California agriculture and all California taxpayers.

Answer to Demands

Pomeroy's statement was in answer to the demands of radical groups which had insisted that the state provide haven and support for persons refusing to work for wages which they considered too low.

"We can't use public relief to change conditions throughout the state," the state relief administrator declared in his enunciation of policy. "That would mean bankruptcy for the state. We haven't enough money from tax funds to do that."

"If business, agriculture, or industry can only pay a certain wage and that is the prevailing wage, then we can't give relief to those who refuse to work at that figure."

To Watch Chisel

"We can't lift ourselves by our own bootstraps above the general level of conditions in the nited States and we can't use relief funds to lift ourselves above the average level of conditions in the United States," Pomeroy, therefore, is that relief will be denied whenever work is available under conditions that are prevailing. Of course, we will not have our organization used to help those who would chisel under prevailing standards, but otherwise our position stands."

Harlow, Stricken, On Recovery Road

Harry S. Harlow, member of the Santa Ana Board of Education, was improving today at his home, 1920 North Ross street, from a peculiar ailment which has baffled medical science in some individual cases for many years. Harlow was stricken Monday when his right lung collapsed.

The collapsing might have been result of a bronchial infection or pneumonia, or possibly from coughing, friends who said Harlow had a cold last week, reported. About six years ago, Harlow's left lung collapsed similarly. "Rest is the quickest cure," Dr. Frank H. Patterson, Harlow's physician said. "And he's resting now."

Lincoln School Frolic Planned

Featured by a pot-luck dinner at 6 p. m., the annual Lincoln school picnic will be held at the Santiago City park Friday afternoon and evening.

TROUBLE PYRAMIDS FOR JAILED DRIVER

Having already received a criminal judgment of one year in jail and a $500 fine, Keith Moon was overtaken by a civil damage judgment today, as the result of a traffic accident near Serra, March 14, 1937.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Keinhof, of Long Beach, who were injured in the crash, were awarded $7508 by default yesterday against Moon and Woodrow Skinner, San Diego youths. Superior Judge G. K. Scovel signed the judgment, $5000 in favor of Mrs. Keinhof and $2508 to her husband, a Long Beach carpenter.

Moon was prosecuted for drunk driving in connection with the accident.

SOCIETY AND CLUBS WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

Popular Young Matrons Join in Presenting Smart Luncheon

Two of the city's popular young matrons, Mrs. Chester Horton and Mrs. John P. Scripps, joined yesterday in staging a most enjoyable luncheon for which they received friends at Pacific Coast club, Long Beach, a favorite center of hospitality for Santa Ana hostesses.

As guests were greeted by the hostesses, their arriving was checked by Mrs. Charles McDaniel Jr. Details of the party were keyed to simplicity, but the abundance of flowers coupled with the setting, gave it definite charm. Lunch was served in a private dining room, where great plumes of deep rose and white larkspur gave special beauty to the table in hollow square arrangement.

Contract play followed in the adjoining card room where gifts in gay tulip wrappings, rewarded Mrs. Douglas Williams, Mrs. Herbert Stroschein and Mrs. G. Stanley Norton, holder of the three high scores. Two of the prizes were luncheon sets of beautiful workmanship, while the third was a set of embroidered towels.

Mrs. Scripps and Mrs. Horton included on their guest list, Miss Mildred Spicer and Mesdames Edward Farnsworth Jr., William Jeffrey, Kenneth Conner, Clarence Holmes, Wayne Harrison, Edward Hall, Ray Tarr, Alvin Stauffer, Charles McDaniel Jr., Edward Lee Russell, Newell Moore, Douglas Williams, F. J. Hersher, Hohnburn White, James Workman, Bernard Parker, Stanley Norton, Herbert Stroschein.

Mesdames Raymond Terry, Albert Harvey, Clarence Ranney, Kenneth Ranney, Edmund West, Richard Winkler, Milo K. Tedstrom, Jack Hanna, Wendell Flint, Thomas Rhone, Calvin Flint, Anton Segerstrom, John Collins, Claude Brakel, Francis Horton, George Horton, Robert Galle, Wilbur Barr, Crawford Nall, James Merigold, Gail Jordan, James McCalla, Roscoe Conklin, Don Park, John Eberole, Farel Jones, Harold Moomaw, Glenn Mathis, Aubrey Glines, John Macy Taylor, M. M. Bryte, Milan Miller, Gordon X. Richmond, Frank Harrington, Harold Harrison and Arnold Norton.

Second Birthday Is Happily Observed

Joys of a birthday party were experienced by the second Saturday afternoon, when his mother, Mrs. C. H. Geisert, and his grandmother, Mrs. C. M. Thorpe, received the little lad's friends and their mothers in their home, 1417 Orange avenue.

Master Jerry Lee's parental grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Geisert, arrived late the past week from her home in Bennington, Kans. for a summer visit, and enjoyed the party as did the little boy's great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Stevens. Older members of the group devoted the afternoon to Chinese rummy and cootie while the children played outdoor games, enjoyed the garden swing and their little host's toys. Mrs. Don Stevens took the rummy prize and Mrs. Frank Hultain scored in cootie.

Party guests young and old, gathered in the garden to watch Jerry Lee open his birthday packages, after which Mrs. Geisert served home-made ice cream with the birthday cake and its two yellow tapers.

Present with Mrs. Geisert and her small son and his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Stevens, Mrs. Elmer Hoos, Mrs. L. S. Stevens and children, Carl, Vern and Louella; Mrs. T. Duncan and daughter Beverly Jean; Mrs. Don Stevens and son Donnie; Mrs. Wesley Duncan and daughter Alice; Verlene, Costa Mesa; Mrs. Frank Hultain and daughter Beverly; William; Mrs. Henry Standridge and son Ronald; and Stella and Jimmy Ruth, Anaheim.

Harmony Bridge Club

Harmony Bridge club members took part in an enjoyable luncheon Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fred Cole, 418 Cypress avenue. Co-hostess was Mrs. Walter Cook.

Easter lilies and pink gladioli were a setting for the event, shared by 23 members. Winning prizes in cards were Mesdames Elizabeth Gowdy and Helen Kellogg Aubin, who scored first and second high in auction; Imogene Maxwell and Jennie Shippe, contract.

Hostesses at the next meeting, June 21, will be Mrs. Mary Adrain and Mrs. Pearl Lyan.

Miss Heemstra Gives Dinner for Her Bridal Attendants

Miss Henrietta Frances Heemstra, whose marriage to Cardwell Ogilvie will take place Sunday, brought feminine members of the bridal party together Wednesday night for dinner at Danigers. She was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Frank A. Heemstra.

In bridal motif were white stocks and tapers which adorned the prettily-appointed table. Packaged daintily wrapped in white tissues and ribbons were presented to her attendants by the bride-elect. Her gift to the flower girl, her little sister, Miss Joanne Heemstra, was a locket. Other attendants received two perfume bottles with dainty little trays.

In the group were Miss Hester Covington, who will be organist at the wedding Sunday; Mrs. Arthur May and Miss Ruth Heemstra, soloists; the Misses Mary Fina, Elizabeth Heemstra and Esther Heemstra, bridesmaids; Miss Martha Heemstra, maid of honor. Completing the party were Miss Henrietta Heemstra and her mother, Mrs. Heemstra.

Supper Party Climaxes Pleasant Series in Kisting Home

When Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Kisting received a dozen guests for buffet supper last night in their home, 2014 North Broadway, they brought to a close a gay series of parties for which the home has been setting this spring.

Coreopsis and deep red snapdragons were combined effectively on the dining room table, while smaller tables were adorned with silver bowls of blue agave, roses and tall tapers were buffet decorations. Mrs. Hugh Gerard and Mrs. G. H. Grigg provided some of the flowers which brightened the home.

Prizes for high scores in bridge went to Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Matthews. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Franson and Messrs. and Mesdames Leonard G. Swales, Clarence Bond, A. J. Lasby, R. I. Matthews and C. C. Fuller.

You and Your Friends

Mrs. Jacob Bohlander, former Santa Ana who has been living in Los Angeles for the past year, has returned to this city to make her home at 822 South Birch street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. MacMullen, 1519 Heliotrope Drive, left yesterday morning for Los Angeles to spend the rest of the week taking part in various activities in connection with the Shriners convention. The Santa Anans will spend part of the time with Glenford friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moeller.

Mr. and Mrs. Vander Kelly and children, Dorothy and Bertha, left Tuesday for their home in Redlands after a weekend visit with Mrs. Kelly's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Friend, 2226 South Tower street.

Mrs. Martin V. Taylor returned Tuesday to her home, 820 Riverside, after an extended visit with the families of her son, Jay Taylor of Tulare, and her daughter, Mrs. Harry Wones of Martinez.

The Misses Phoebe Clark, Marian Whitney and Leola Watkins, senior students at the Orange County Hospital School of Nursing, left this week for Pasadena where they will have an intensive several weeks' course with Huntington Memorial hospital for special service in care of private patients. Arrangements are under way whereby Huntington Memorial hospital nurses will observe an exchange course, coming to the Orange county hospital for general nursing practice.

Messrs. and Mesdames James Sullivan, John Davis, Charles Hyatt, George Hubbard and Glenn Hendrickson were in San Pedro recently attending V. F. W. second district rally. Among those planning to attend V. F. W. department convention next week in San Jose are the Sullivans, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Sullivan's brother, Dr. J. Murphy of Santa Paula, who will leave Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schrock, who were married June 1, have recently returned from their honeymoon trip to San Francisco, Berkeley and Oakland. The bride is the former Miss Frances Bassett. They are residing in the home of the bridegroom's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Perry F. Schrock, 205 West Twentieth street while the Schrocks are making a trip east.

Mary Lou McFarland Is Hostess to U. S. C. Classmates

Beginning with a dinner party last night, and climaxing this morning with breakfast in the home of the Re-an Mrs. G. Scott McFarland, 305 Orange avenue, was a reunion of U.S.C. classmates at which Miss Mary Lou McFarland was hostess.

Codes who have been roommates at House of Tibbott on the college campus were Miss McFarland's guests. She received the group for dinner last night at Danigers. Appointments in the school colors of red and gold included golden linen, table cloths, tapers and flowers.

The hostess provided a dainty gift wrapped in red and gold tissue paper for each of her guests. They included Miss Louise Sexton of this city, Miss Marjorie Bettanier, Miss Valoris Layne, Pasadena; Miss Shandon Parnell, Hollywood; Miss Irene Morrow, Great Falls, Mont.; Miss Lucille Neiman, Fullerton. Almost all of the group are graduating seniors.

The Santa Ana's guests remained overnight in her home, and left for their respective homes this morning after an early breakfast. Miss McFarland plans to attend summer school at U.S.C. Her marriage to Charles Stewart Nece, also a student at University of Southern California, is planned for early autumn.

Workman Home Is Scene Of Benefit Party

White Shrine Circle's series of benefit parties continued Tuesday evening with an informal event in the home of Mrs. James and Estelle Workman, 1905 Valencia street. Dr. Estelle Workman and Mrs. Marianne Muller were co-hostesses.

Five tables of cards were in play. Prizes in auction bridge were won by Mesdames Marie Patterson, Anna Ream and Elizabeth Fairfield, who held the three highest scores among feminine players; and Dr. S. L. Aubin, Neal Beisel and Dr. James Workman, among men contestants. Scoring high in contract bridge were Mrs. Imogene Maxwell and Mrs. Neal Beisel.

Dr. Estelle Workman and Mrs. Muller served refreshments at the close of the games.

Santa Anans Leave Friday for Honolulu

Sailing Friday evening on the S.S. Lurline, Miss Mary Tuthill, daughter of the R. G. Tuthills, 2048 Victoria drive and Miss Mary Nau, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Nau, 206 South Birch street, will begin a vacation trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

In Honolulu they will visit with Dr. and Mrs. John L. Hopwood and daughter, Miss Muriel Hopwood, teacher on one of the islands. She and Miss Nau were roommates at Claremont college last year.

Miss Tuthill and Miss Nau will sail at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening from Wilmington. They plan to spend three weeks on the islands.

Pinkston-West Wedding To Occur in First Baptist Church

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. B. Bertrand West, 1210 North Ross street, to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mae ("Betty") West, Frederick Allen Pinkston Jr., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Allen Pinkston of St. Louis, Mo., and a brother of Mrs. Edward H. Burns of this city.

The date for the wedding will be Saturday, June 25, with the ceremony to take place at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon in First Baptist church.

Announcement of the betrothal of the young couple was made in early May at a formal tea given by Mrs. J. L. Lang in her home at Joaquin Rancho. While the tea was given especially to compliment Miss West and announce her engagement, it was made a double announcement party, with Mrs. Irvine's niece, Miss Prudence Roberts, scoring guest honors because of her betrothal to Ensign John Sherman Barlow. The marriage of Miss Roberts and Ensign Barlow was one of the loveliest occurring in the gardens of the San Joaquin Rancho home.

Ensign and Mrs. Barlow are now established at Coronado. Following the wedding of Miss West and Mr. Pinkston, the young couple will make Santa Ana their home.

The approaching wedding has occasioned a succession of colorful parties, many of them given by Miss West's junior college friends. She is extremely active in all Jaycee affairs, and her scholastic achievements have been recognized with membership in various honor societies.

Birthday Luncheon Given in Costa Mesa

Mrs. Harvey De Wolfe's country home near Costa Mesa was scene of a birthday luncheon Tuesday afternoon when she paid a charming compliment to Mrs. David Meiers.

Plans were marked for the hostess, the honoree and Mesdames E. R. Newman, Gus Klingenberg, E. L. Blanchard, Frank Thomas and Maxie Wilson. They were seated at a table set with colorful pottery and centered with larkspur. Other bouquets were arranged throughout the rooms.

As a birthday feature, Mrs. De Wolfe had planned a dessert of cake topped with whipped cream strawberries. Mrs. Meyer was presented with gifts and cards.

HAPPY FAMILY GROUP

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole, 615 Cress avenue, are anticipating the arrival of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Douglas Friday from their home in Berkeley. Mrs. Douglas (Geraldine Cole) will remain at the family home for two weeks while her husband continued to Utah to be in camp with the National Guards.

Thomas Cole, son of the Fred Cole, recently returned from Berkeley, where he spent last year. He plans to begin law studies in the fall, when he will enter University of California.

"Girl of Golden West" Party is Birthday Observance

California's gay and colorful history seemed to unroll last night at a unique "Girl of the Golden West" party, with which Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carlson, 1246 South Van Ness avenue, gave celebration to the fifteenth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Charmean Carlson.

Miss Charmean's lovely voice has won for her the affectionate title of the "Deanna Durbin of Julia Lathrop high school," so it was natural that she should emulate one of her favorite stars, Jeanette MacDonald, by appearing in the title role of Miss McDonald's latest singing picture, and also that of the party.

For all the guests were asked to come in the costume of some phase of the old west, and the effect when they were grouped in the big garden of the Carlson home, was like a gay picture of olden, golden times. There were Spanish dons and señoritas, saucy dance hall girls, pioneers and miners. Prizes offered by Mr. and Mrs. Carlson for the most convincing costumes, were won by Miss Mary McDougall as a dashing "cowgirl," and by Bob Gill, whose miner's outfit included even the pick.

The big garden was strung with colored lights, and dancing was enjoyed in the brick-paved patio. In addition to radio dance music were gay numbers very much in keeping with the spirit of the evening. Mr. Carlson played guitar selections, and G. C. Morin, formerly a vaudeville star with the original "Tom and Jerry" team, played his guitar.

Mr. and Mrs. Morin, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wollert and Mrs. Jennie Carlson joined with Mr. and Mrs. Carlson in enjoyment of the young people, the majority of whom were schoolmates of Miss Charmean at Lathrop school, from which she will graduate this month. Adult guests also aided in serving the supper menu, when hamburgers were prepared over the grill and served with other appetizing fare, including several decorated birthday cakes.

There were many gifts for the party honoree from her friends who included with those mentioned, James Patterson, Jimmie Farner, Bill Monneypenney, Eugenia Bond, Barbara Brisco, Beverly Short, Peggy Lou Hoffman, Betty Haynes, Lois Banks, Barbara Jones, Margaret Hawk, Delpha Wollert, Dorothy Ann Parker, Molly Maconey, Bishop McDougall, Phyllis Brookbank, Betty Mae Nelson, Betty Jean Koester, Dick Vance, Paul Trickey, Bob Gill, Marshall Nelson, James Carille, Bill Guiley, Ed Robinson, Ruth Murphy, Jimmie Beach, Don Yoder, Harvey Riggle, Eugenia Lang, Onie Sanders, Reggie Wollert, Cecil Herren, Anita Jean Wollert, Ardy's Nadine Wollert, and Lowell Brandon.

Immediately after close of school on June 17, Mr. and Mrs. Carlson with their daughter and son, Charmean and Robert, and Mr. Carlson's mother, Mrs. Jeanne Carlson, will leave by automobile for a visit in their former home, Walnut Grove, Minn.

Bridge was played after the business meeting, and first and second high scores were pretty prizes for Miss Bernice Borchard and Mrs. Faulkner. To complete their hospitality, the Misses Glickner and Schlesinger served ice cream roll, cake and coffee at prettily arranged small tables whose flower clusters accented the sunny yellow tone uppermost in the flowers gracing the home.

The Rev. Father John Meehan, pastor of St. Anne's church, was a special guest. Members present with the two hostesses were Mesdames Leland Osterander, Walter Markel, Albert Muckenthaler, Dan Jerry, W. H. Seelye, Arthur Wakefield, William Faulkner, Albert Markel, Bert Hoffman, M. Smith, Eugene Hitt, Hugh McKenny, P. A. Prager, C. E. McCaffrey, the Misses Jean Gaspar, Nellie Colombini, Bernice Borchard, Loretta Cole, Jewell Summerville, Faye Barbin and Lucille Bechtold.

Present were Mrs. Vilas Childers and children, June and John; Mrs. Margaret Rutledge and children, Carol Jane and Donnie; Mrs. Frank Burns and children, Michael and Erna Lee; Miss Steel and her niece, Patty Steel; Mrs. Bailey and daughter, Lenore; Mrs. Norman Daschner, Santa Ana; Mrs. Otto Cotton and son, Donnie Ipson; Mrs. Roy Dargatz and daughter, Mary Ann; Mrs. Reece and children, Bobbie, Jimmie and Betty; Mrs. Dean Lawrence and children, Georgia, Lois and Tommy; Anaheim; Mrs. Dale Sheldon and son, Gary and Mrs. H. B. Switzer, Fullerton; Mrs. Ed Lane and daughter, Linda Lee, Costa Mesa; Mrs. Kedrick Keely and son, Kedrick Jr., Los Angeles; Mrs. Walter Daschner and daughter, Kathleen, Laguna Beach; Mrs. Vern Adams, Buena Park; Mrs. Clarence Kelly and children, Katherine and Kenneth, Atwood.

Past Masters, Wives Are Guests at Dinner

Past masters of Jubilee lodge shared honors with their wives Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kahler and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keller were co-hosts at a dinner party at Swansons. Many bright-hued flowers formed a setting for the event.

The group went to the Kahler home, 1512 Dresser street for an evening of Michigan. Rewarded for their high scores were Mrs. Judson Sutherland, Mrs. J. P. Williams, Carl Cowles and Mr. Sutherland.

Guests of the two host couples were Messrs. and Mesdames Carl Cowles, Fred Pope, J. P. Williams, Harvey Dimmitt, Judson Sutherland, H. C. Collins, Robert Speed and E. N. Owens with W. G. Bewis.

Ebell Household Group Has Luncheon at Coast Royal

For their final meeting of the season, members of Ebell Second Household Economics section enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. W. C. Watkins' home at Coast Royal, where the assemblying yesterday for luncheon served early in the afternoon.

Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. F. C. Rowland, Elmer Barr Burns and Mrs. A. N. Zerman formed the hostess committee. Tables were arranged in the sheltered patio at the rear of the home. In the absence of the leader, Mrs. R. C. Holmes, business matters were conducted by Mrs. W. S. Thompson.

After luncheon, members enjoyed the attractions of the home and grounds, going down the stairway which leads to the barbecue house and other interesting features. The view of the ocean was especially lovely yesterday.

Sharing the event with members was a guest, Mrs. Thomson's sister, Mrs. L. E. Tarbox, who has just been installed president of Woman's club of Santa Ana.

Dance is Discussed By St. Anne's League

Plans for the coming sports dance were of outstanding importance Monday night at the meeting of St. Anne's league with Miss Gertrude Glickner and Miss Estelle Schlesinger, in the Glickner home, 1337 South Garvey street.

This dance, an annual affair given by the league, is to be held in Santa Ana Country club the evening of June 18. Mrs. Hugh McKenny and Mrs. P. A. Prager are co-chairmen of the dance committee, and Mrs. William J. Faulkner is ticket chairman. Those wishing to reserve tickets may telephone her at 2261. It was announced that Clarence Williams and his Knights of Swing would provide music for the evening.

Miss Schlesinger, league president, conducted the business meeting and announced a meeting of the dance committee for next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in her home, 1213 South Van Ness avenue. Plans were made also for a beach party to be held sometime in July.

Bridge was played after the business meeting, and first and second high scores were pretty prizes for Miss Bernice Borchard and Mrs. Faulkner. To complete their hospitality, the Misses Glickner and Schlesinger served ice cream roll, cake and coffee at prettily arranged small tables whose flower clusters accented the sunny yellow tone uppermost in the flowers gracing the home.

College Reminiscences Shared by Alumnae In Meeting Here

Comparing the closely chaptered schooldays of yesteryear with the present comparative freedom in even such a conservative school as the famous Mary Baldwin college of Staunton, Va., was one of the pleasant phases of a recent meeting of Southland Alumnae with Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch, 725 Mortimer street.

Mrs. Hatch had the pleasure of welcoming half a dozen of her sister alumnae, one or two of whom are recent graduates, and could tell of the changes on the campus, including the pleasant new Alumnae house and the tea room. There was chat too of old friends, and discussion of alumnae and classmates who have brought fame to the school. Among these are Dean Mary Yost of Stanford university; Mrs. Cordell Hull and Lucille Foster McMillan, member of a United States civil service commission, and recent author of a book on the rise of woman in government affairs.

The group's alma mater is one of the best known schools of the old South, situated in beautiful Shenandoah Valley. Founded in 1812, it was one of the first American colleges to promote the education of women. Mrs. Hatch is a graduate of the school and her sister, Mrs. Aldric Worswick, also attended.

While school associations were being renewed and reminiscences shared, the hostess staged an informal tea hour, using a flower-decorated tea wagon. Her guests were Mrs. Charles Morsman of Hollywood; Mrs. Rex B. Kennedy, Whittier; Miss Margaret Scott, Covina; Miss Virginia Broughton, San Marino; Mrs. Clark March and Mrs. W. T. Coleman, Monrovia.

Willard Faculty Tea
Today Honors
Miss Deborah Elliott

Miss Deborah Elliott, who is retiring after almost a half a century in the teaching profession, was to be honored guest this afternoon at a tea planned by her teaching associates on the faculty at Willard Junior High school.

Miss Elliott spent her early days of teaching in Indiana, having studied at De Pauw University in Greencastle, Ind. She has been in the English department of Willard Junior High school for more than 13 years.

This afternoon's tea was to have its setting at the Doris Kathryn, with Mesdames Vera Allen, Vivian Meeks, Louise Wright, and the Misses Marion Libby and Veda Ball on the committee in charge of arrangements.

Others invited to share the affair were Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson and Mrs. Henderson; Mesdames Robert Northcross, John Tessimann, Thomas Glenn, William F. Croddy, Merton Butler, E. R. Carhart, M. M. Lane, Grace Wolff, Edith Thatcher, Iva Webber, Golden Norwood Weston and the Misses Frances Corson, Lelia Thacher, Hazel Thacher, Esther Rideout, Olive Wherry, Leta Blythe and Stella Mueller.

Luncheon Hostess Has Intimate Group for Contract Play

Friendly intimacy was the dominant note of a gay little bridge affair Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Gilbert P. Campbell called together a few of her friends for contract play after a pleasant luncheon hour in her home, 833 South Parton street.

While all the vivid hues of the season's garden flowers were in evidence in blossoms gracing the home, the two tables where guests were grouped for the luncheon hour, were in cool blue and white, with bachelor buttons and marguerites establishing the color theme.

Mrs. Parke Roper and Mrs. James Harding made the afternoon's prize-winning scores, playing in competition with Mrs. Clare Johnson, Mrs. J. Philip Hatzfeld, Mrs. L. A. Collier, Mrs. Jennie Richardson, Mrs. Maurice A. Yarnell and their hostesses, Mrs. Campbell.

Ebbel First Travelers
Meet for Luncheon

Friendly plans for the entertainment of Ebbel First Travel section were made this week by Mrs. L. J. Carden, who took her guests to Swanson's cafe for the luncheon hour. This pleasant interval was succeeded by an afternoon at Bowers Memorial Museum. There the members were received by Mrs. F. E. Coulter, and taken on a tour of the museum's fine exhibits, all of which were explained entertainingly by the curator.

As the afternoon drew to a close, Mrs. Carden and her guests repaired to the former's home, 2011-2 West Twentieth street for the short business session. In the party with the hostess were Mesdames H. C. Dawes, M. F. Heathman, W. M. Smart, George S. Smith, H. B. Heil and E. B. Smith.

Stanford Women's Club
Completes Plans for Benefit Party

As members of Orange County Stanford Women's club prepare for their annual benefit bridge party Saturday afternoon in the Robert G. Tutill home, 2035 Victoria Drive, their interest is heightened by reports of what has been accomplished by young college women who already have benefitted by their scholarship loans.

This came up for discussion Monday night when the club was entertained in the Huntington Beach home of Mrs. J. K. McDonald. The affair was made a covered dish supper, and Mrs. McDonald had planned a charming table arrangement. Small flower-garlanded tables were grouped in proximity to the dining table where an exquisite Madonna figure was used with flowers in blue and white.

Evening hours were given over to completing plans for the Saturday party whose proceeds will be added to the student loan fund. Mrs. Ross Shafer announced the name of the young Orange county student who will have the current scholarship. A letter from Dean Mary Yost of the University contained much interesting information regarding achievements of other students who have received the scholarship. Among these was Miss Ann Stanford, who won the 1936 Ina Coolbrith Memorial poetry prize, and this year won the $1000 James D. Thelan award in literature.

Mrs. McDonald's guests Monday night were the Misses Lella Watson, Mary Tutill, Thelma Patton, Barbara Rurup, Margaret Swingle, Hattie Nobs, Aural Bauer, Mesdames Ross Shafer, Edward Elliott, J. Parley Smith, N. E. West, Edna Congdon and Joseph Livernash.

Mayflower Club Staff
Begins New Duties

Mayflower club officers took over their new duties Tuesday afternoon at a meeting in the home of Mrs. C. W. Rowland, 236 West Nineteenth street. Mrs. Fannie Cunningham was co-hostess with Mrs. Rowland.

New officers are Mrs. Carl Fisher, president; Mrs. M. J. Hulsey, vice president; Mrs. E. E. Frisby, secretary; Mrs. A. T. Perkins, treasurer. Mrs. J. D. Sanborn, the retiring president, received a set of cups and saucers to match her tea set as a gift of the club. Mrs. Sanborn provided a lovely bouquet for her successor.

Mrs. Rowland and Mrs. Cunningham served refreshments to their guests, Mesdames Edward Cookens, C. W. Copeland, Carl Fisher, Ray Ford, E. E. Frisby, Edgar Higday, J. M. Hulsey, William Maryme, A. T. Perkins, J. W. Parkinson, Robert Smith, J. D. Sanborn, F. W. Sanford, H. H. Sykes, V. C. Shidler and A. C. Wiebe.

Club members will entertain their families at a steak bake June 24 at 6 p. m. in Santiago park. The affair will take the place of the club's July meeting.

MEETING IN FULLERTON

Bridge club members were guests Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Harold Vieira, Fullerton. Mrs. Edward Sugden and Mrs. Ralph Adams held the two highest scores.

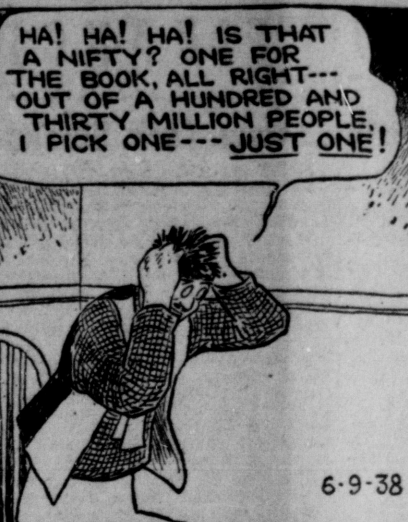

Others present were Mrs. Bolton Jones, Fullerton; Mrs. Howard Anderson, Huntington Beach; Mrs. George Horton, Mrs. Charles Kendall Jr. and Mrs. Francis Edmunds, Santa Ana.

Boston cream pie and coffee were served at the close of bridge play.

DRIVE CAREFULLY -SAVE A LIFE-

THE RIGHT TO FIDDLE

Chalk up a credit mark for the New York state judge who allowed a woman juror to do her crocheting in court.

He recognized that it actually would help her in her thinking, and every schoolboy knows that one of the things the world sorely needs is more jurors who can think.

Of course, this may lead to some pretty odd-looking courtroom scenes if the idea is carried out to its logical conclusion. There would be jurors whirling in swivel chairs, jurors making paper chains, jurors filing their nails, even pacing back and forth in the jury box.

But why not? Anybody who has spent a little time around courtrooms knows that a great many attorneys seem to save up a year's fiddling for their court appearances. And often when the judge appears to be playing statue he's actually producing stars and curlicues on a scratch pad.

If there's any place where Equality Before the Law ought to be maintained, it's certainly in court. And what's sauce for the jurist is sauce for the jury.

MILLION IN BUILDING

Building permits totaling close to a million dollars have been taken out in Santa Ana and Newport Beach in the first five months of the year.

Newport Beach is giving Santa Ana a close race for building supremacy. In the first five months building permits totaling $427,500 were issued at Newport Beach while Santa Ana's total was $458,500 or a grand total of $885,080.

In Newport Beach the majority of the permits were issued for private homes, just as they were in Santa Ana. Almost 100 homes have been built in the harbor area. All sections of the city have experienced considerable building, with Balboa Island leading.

Private home building in Santa Ana is the heaviest it has been in many months, according to contractors and real estate men. Much of this is due to the liberal terms of the Federal Housing Act, but many homes are being built by people not taking advantage of the government loan.

Indications are that building this year will far exceed that of a year ago, in Santa Ana. Along the coast many of the communities reveal that building for the first five months this year have exceeded the total for all last year.

BEEES AS MIRRORS

Reports on the Nation Spelling Bee in Washington suggest the possibility of an international handbook of no little value, which might be entitled "Spelling Bees Around the World."

It may be just another one of those summer notions, but the feeling persists that a collection of reports on spelling bees of foreign countries might provide an illuminating study of national habits of thought, political influences, and ideological backgrounds.

School kids from every part of the country batted the dictionary around in Washington. The kinds of words they were and were not familiar with likely mirror the background of the average American child.

The word that brought the first fatality was "despotic."

The first of the last four survivors went down under "proletariat." An unfamiliar distinction in America.

The next defeat was at the hands of "protocol." Every European child knows that protocols grow on trees.

And what was the last word that every little American knew and spelled without hesitation, just before the finalists started drooping?

"Raspberry!" Obviously, the handbook idea's worth considering.

DISTRICT CONVENTION

Proposal to call a Republican district convention in Santa Ana to nominate a candidate for the state assembly is gaining in favor and indications are that such a convention or conference may be called in the near future.

The conference would be similar to the tri-county convention held in April in Riverside where delegates from every precinct in Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties unanimously nominated Mayor Johnson of San Bernardino to be the Republican candidate for Congress.

The district convention would limit delegates to the precincts in the seventy-fifth assembly district. Of course any candidate nominated at the convention would have to be nominated again at the primaries in August. This, however, would be a mere formality.

We believe that through this method of choosing a candidate better men can be encouraged to seek office. The fight to win the nomination at the primaries would be eliminated, thus giving the candidate more time to devote to the general election.

What is needed now for public office are men who are fearless and conscientious; men who could not be stamped by the masses; men who would put country above party and men who would listen to the dictates of their own mind and who would realize that the universal rule is the Golden Rule. This is the kind of man that is needed as the law makers of our country.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON
World Copyright 1938
By King Features Syndicate, Inc.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Dashing new political leader of the New Deal, Tommy Corcoran, will never succeed Jim Farley. Any such idea has been definitely eliminated, even from Corcoran's mind, by the Iowa primary result. For, truth is, the snowed-under candidate there really represented Corcoran's first attempt at political management.

Corcoran seems to have made himself, or was appointed, a sort of a subrosa national chairman to get everybody who voted against the court bill. Son James slipped a timid finger into the pie at the last minute. Harry Hopkins scratched his proboscis trying to show Iowa Democrats the way. Corcoran may have received some advice from a more experienced political authority. But this was strictly his first political show.

As an example of the new genius he attempted to bring to the deficient political world there is the very deep case of how he tried to get Alf's Bill Green in on his candidate's side. It will never get out officially, but you may accept it as a fact that Boss Corcoran called Green on the telephone after Green gave out a statement endorsing Corcoran's opponent and suggested it would be a good idea if Green would do the same thing for his candidate, Otha Wearin.

Some of Green's congressional friends say he nearly fell out of his chair, in view of the fact that the Wearin candidacy had been backed six weeks earlier by an official CIO endorsement. However, before he collapsed, he managed to say "no."

The pros in the senate cloakroom have an idea the whole Wearin campaign was skillful in just about the same degree. In fact, some of them call it, in their professional way, "the most amateurish job of the year," even including that of Boss Corcoran's compatriot in defeat, Boss Guffey in Pennsylvania.

Where Boss Corcoran made his big mistake they say was in shooting too early. Gillette wisely held back, did not officially open his campaign until 10 days before the primary. By that time, Corcoran had made the campaign for Gillette, by a series of mistakes including the Hopkins misadventure.

An Iowa pro authority believes Wearin would have received many more votes if his campaign had been under more experienced management. However, all consider it largely an academic question as the size of the Republican primary poll leads most authorities here to expect a Republican senatorial victory in the fall.

A new phase has come into Washington conversation since Jimmy Roosevelt wrote that letter to Iowa about "my friend Wearin." Five senators, sent a telegram to Senator Gillette after the vote was counted, stating:

"My friend I congratulate you."

It is getting tougher every day for the little fellow in business. Ponder the predicament of a small southern shipbuilding firm which was aching to build some of these new government merchant ships. The firm leaders came up here, worked their fingers to a frazzle. Finally they got a contract from the maritime commission to build four ships for $3,200,000.

That seemed to be enough business to make a big one out of a little one. So they thought the firm leaders. They asked up to the RFC and asked a loan from Jesse Jones to equip their plant so they could build the four ships. In other words they wanted to borrow from Peter Roosevelt to build ships for Paul Roosevelt. That's good business, if you can get it, but they couldn't.

The word of their RFC loan application got back to the maritime commission and to the comptroller-general's office. From this last place, an order was issued rejecting the contract on the official ground that it did not meet "statutory requirements," a polite official phrase to cover the fact that the small business was too small to see.

The maritime commission thereupon rewarded the contract to one of the largest shipbuilding concerns in the country.

The wage-hour conference was advertised as peaceful, but the final session was far from it. Senate Conference Borah, the dean of the senate, and it's freshman senator, Ellender threw boiling words back and forth. Borah insisted that the senate men loan toward the house bill, but Ellender advocated the compromise that was finally made.

The rule of conferences requires secrecy concerning the balloting but you may write it down as a fact that Senators Borah, Walsh and LaFollette voted against the agreement.

Senators have been chiding Chairman Carter Glass of the appropriations committee, because, for some unaccountable reason, the only picture now left hanging upon committee walls is that of Cal Coolidge.

Ebullient Senator Reynolds hung the following sign on his office door here the day after his North Carolina primary victory:

"Due to the avalanche of telegrams and telephone calls being received today, I have found it necessary to close my office for 24 hours. I am deeply grateful to you all. God bless you all. Come in and see me tomorrow."

Quiet! The Master Mind Is Thinking

Clearing House

Fellow Citizens:

Referring to my article that appeared in the Clearing House column of May 23rd, Mr. Hollies seems to think that I got a little bit confused in what I had to say about an Old Age Pension Plan and a 2 per cent transactions-sales tax that would operate on a pay-as-you-go plan. He says, only 11 days before I had said, the only way to increase purchasing power is by production. You're quite right Mr. Hollies; I think that's the only way. But there's got to be power back of production. I'll endeavor to paint a picture of what I mean. Your car won't start until you apply gas power. Production won't start going until you apply money power. You had to have money before you could have a printing press. No money, no printing press. You put the money to work by exchanging it for a printing press. You then put the printing press to work consuming raw materials and giving work to people, in order to produce and supply a finished product to your readers. You didn't kill the goose that laid the golden eggs when you put the money to work in that manner. On the contrary, you put money to work in the manner that the industrialists put money to work (when they think it is safe to do so) in order to produce and create purchasing power, and continued prosperity.

Now, let's take a look at the alphabetical way of spend and producing in order to bring about prosperity. Well I suppose that instead of your having put that money into a printing press that would produce and continue to carry on, you would have put it to work building a concrete wall around your entire plant. That would have consumed a great amount of raw materials and would have put many men to work for several months. Finally, the job would have been completed, and you would have a concrete wall that never would produce a single dollar, and all the men who built the wall would have been out of a job. Now, that's the artificial way of producing in order to create purchasing power, which fails to carry on.

It might be kind of interesting to check up on some of the Government's alphabetical projects scattered around throughout the different states—then draw your own conclusions as to how the money was put to work, if in "printing press" that would continue to produce, or if in a "concrete wall" around the plant that would not continue to produce. Congressman McGroarty says, "The passage of legislation by Congress authorizing the government to borrow more billions and to issue bonds to secure payment of the loans, may prove a matter of concern to some people, but it rejoices the New Deal candidates for election or re-election to office in the year's polls. They are now on their way as 100-to-1 favorites in the race. You can't beat a government with $4,000,000,000 to spend as it pleases," says Vice-President Garner.

Taking the above to be true, necessary to close my office for 24 hours. I am deeply grateful to you all. God bless you all. Come in and see me tomorrow."

You and Your Nation's Affairs

Shooting the Watchdog

By HARLEY L. LUTZ
Professor of Public Finance, Princeton University

One of the most objectionable features of the late reorganization bill was the proposed elimination of the independent Comptroller General. The President's committee had proposed transferring the duties of the Comptroller General to the Treasury, of the power to settle disbursements of officers' accounts, with the Auditor General acting as referee on major disputed issues. Under this plan the Auditor General was to make an audit, but with power only to report to Congress any items settled for by the Treasury which were, in his opinion, beyond the power of the law.

The argument for this change was that the rejection of expenditure items by an officer independent of the executive is an intolerable interference with administration. The proportion of all payments which was thus held up has never been as much as 10 per cent of the total. Hence, the alleged interference should be described, perhaps, as annoying rather than serious. In view of the rumors that the reorganization bill is to be revived in this session, the issue of the future of the independent Comptroller General is again pertinent.

Many tales have gone around about the rejection of fancy travel expenses and similar things. The details of one such incident are set out rather fully in a letter from the acting Comptroller and Auditor General, reprinted in the Congressional Record for July 15, 1937.

This is the case of the European tour to study cooperative marketing of farm products. As we consider this story we get further light on the reasons for wanting to get rid of the watchdog of the treasury and to vest the settlement of disbursement officers' accounts in an agency under the direct control of the executive.

(Address questions to the author, care of this newspaper)

there should be a house-cleaning of the transactions-sales tax not to exceed 2 per cent, the ones receiving a pension to engage in no further labor, business or profession for gain, and that their past life is free from habitual criminality, and that the pension act will be so drawn that such tax can only be used for the old age revolving pension fund. I believe in it, from the fact that it would be a universal National plan instead of the political job making state plans, with hidden taxes aplenty. From the Property Owners Association list covering taxes, there are 99 tax levies paid by Californians. Local government 4, California State government 25, Federal government 70. There are now a large per cent of hidden taxes in practically everything we buy or sell. The 2 per cent transactions-sales tax would not be a hidden tax.

General Hugh S. JOHNSON SAYS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Formerly, in ordinary circumstances, there was no moral reason why a President shouldn't express his preference in a Congressional primary. The pressure of mere preference was not great. The danger was that the other fellow might win. That might double political enmities, rather than strengthen political friendship. It could weaken the party for coming elections.

But recent interferences are not in ordinary circumstances. Neither are these personal Presidential preferences. They are impersonal punishments of legislators for voting convictions. Furthermore, it is not party punishment for deserting to the enemy party and its doctrines contrary to their own party principles and loyalty. There was nothing in the Democratic platform or policy about packing the Supreme Court or even about any such radical reorganization of government as was proposed. These things were devised by a small unofficial group, some of whom are not even Democrats, adopted by the President and sprung as a surprise after the election, and contrary to party principle.

Finally, to distinguish from ordinary circumstances, the present devices of the Corcoran Benzine Board for the rubbing out of resisters to personal rule, is the President's insistence on authority badly to use billions of taxpayer's money appropriated solely for the relief of human suffering—not primarily for that—but primarily to punish or reward whole districts in a campaign of personal revenge and regimentation and regardless of its results in distributing relief unevenly among innocent sufferers of equal merit.

Patronage was always used but not such ghoully thing as this was ever before proposed. The cynical indifference of the Benzine Board to public protest springs from confidence that they can make it work. That reveals a ruthless political immorality on about the levels of the more carnal political purges and pogroms of Europe. It suggests that if they thought they could get away with it with machine guns rather than political poison, they would do that too. That is just another way of playing politics with human misery and regardless of human rights.

There are rumors based upon the President's proposed visits to contested states that this check has marked opponents of Senators Barkley, Bulkley and Elmer Thomas for destruction. I know the state of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana only from visits and observation, but my human clay was disfigured from the pits of Oklahoma. They won't get away with it there.

It is no holier than the rest but it is the state closest to the old restless, pioneer breed. They still take their politics seriously and sometimes tumultuously. It has usually been fatal to lecture or talk-down to those voters. I think it will be fatal even from the throne. Furthermore, they like their candidates to be raw and ripping. Yessers will eventually get the gate.

Senator Elmer Thomas is a nice, quiet, docile yes-gentleman. He has neither the heart nor the trappings of a typical Oklahoma representative. The state is tired of him. Gomer Smith, like Will Rogers, has Indian blood. He is a fountain of picturesquely political eloquence, a two-fisted fighter and he is not particular about whom he fights. He has his own peculiar standing with old people, farmers and workers. He has captured Oklahoma imagination and he is going to win this primary whether Mr. Roosevelt goes into the state to endorse Elmer or not. The President cannot say that Gomer is no New Dealer. He is about two steps ahead of the New Deal. The administration had better keep its fingers off that buzzsaw. It will certainly get cut and it might uncover another Kingfish. Mr. Smith has many of the qualities of the late Huey Long.

Sharing The Comforts Of Life

By R. C. Hollies

THEY HAVE NO PRESS

Invariably we hear the soured souls who are attempting to reform the world in a magical way contend that they are helpless because they do not own and control newspapers and magazines. They contend that the newspapers and magazines so color public opinion that these reformers are not able to accomplish the great blessing they would add to what they call the underprivileged because of the lack of the ownership of newspapers.

But, in fact, these men do not want a newspaper. They do not want to publicly express their ideas where thoughtful people can point out their inconsistencies and contradictions. They much prefer to carry on a whispering campaign or to occupy a sheltered position where they can spread their wish-pictures and cannot be embarrassed by having the absurdities of their theories challenged.

It would seem that if they were really sincere, they would be only too delighted to avail themselves of the columns of the newspapers to discuss their plans for improving the general well-being. They attempt to explain away their inconsistencies by saying that the owner of a newspaper always has the advantage of the man who does not own the newspaper. They do not tell the whole truth in this statement. If the publisher of a newspaper refuses to give equal space to the advocate of a social theory, then the statement may be true. But, if the advocate of a reform theory is given equal space then he has a great advantage over the publisher of a paper. This is true because the publisher of a paper can destroy his whole property by taking one stand that is not for the public interest, if this stand is ridiculous enough. And just to the degree that he does take stands that are not to public interest, will it penalize the publisher of the paper. Not so with the reformer, if his theory is not sound. He has no investment to lose. Of course, if he has a position, he might lose his position, if his theories are absurd, but if he is honest and really wants to test his theories and is willing to fight for them and if they are necessary for the general well-being, he certainly would never permit a little material inconvenience stand in the way of expressing what he thought would be necessary to add to the general welfare and make a great country possible.

So these people who are really wanting to talk to hear themselves and make themselves actually believe they are great humanists, when in reality they are only desirous of making other people think they are important, are only bluffing when they say that they are helpless because they do not have the use of the columns of a newspaper. Every reader of this paper knows that the columns of the paper are open for almost unlimited use to any public spirited citizen holding most any social position in the community who desires to be of service to the community and help enlighten all the people. These people are not only welcome to the use of the space but they are respectfully urged to make use of the columns of the paper to help bring about public opinion that will make it possible for the millions of men now out of work to secure jobs and those who are working to receive better pay.

The next time you hear a man say that he is helpless because he does not have the use of a paper, put it down that he is bluffing—that he really does not want to submit his theories to the analysis of the public in general. One might also inquire as to whether the citizen is not having a dangerous and reactionary influence in the community. Invariably he does not believe in the Universal Rule; invariably he does not believe that all people should be treated equally, invariably he wants to put his ideas over quietly and secretly. His theories are invariably not sound and cannot stand the limelight of general publicity.

LOW MONEY RATES

The Treasury is issuing more than a billion dollars of money on a 2 3/4 per cent basis for 25 year bonds. This is the lowest rate on record for loans of this kind. It is rather significant that wealth can be borrowed at less than 3 per cent. And this rate applies even if the loan is payable in dollars that are not real dollars, but only promises-to-pay real dollars later on. If we have 3 per cent inflation a year, it would mean that the lenders of this wealth would not get a cent in return for the use of their wealth.

But when the banks can pyramid credit and loan other people's wealth and receive the interest, it is natural that wealth secured this way can be secured at a low rate. This is especially true when the great majority of people have no conception whatever of what a dollar really means.

On the other hand, it means that business is very stagnant; that people with assets, or credits, are not even interested in going into business and hiring help with the idea of making a profit, even if money can be borrowed at an extremely low rate.

But, of course, money for business cannot be borrowed at the same rate because the income from it is taxed, while the income from a government bond is not taxed.

UNDERDEVELOPED MINDS

Congressman McGroarty, in discussing the conditions of the country, laments the fact that when we are seeing our government crumble, the control in Washington has fallen into hands of underdeveloped minds, theorists and play boys.

When we plow under the cotton and pay people for not producing, it certainly seems that those who are making the laws have underdeveloped minds, or they think the voters have underdeveloped minds to continue them in office with this kind of a policy.

CHURCHES, COUNTRY CLUBS

A few days ago, Roger W. Babson, national moderator of the Congregational church, branded all religious denominations, with the exception of the Roman Catholic and the Episcopal churches, as country clubs.

This is certainly a serious charge for a man of the prominence of Roger Babson to be making and should cause those who are responsible for the policies of the churches to give serious thought as to what they are really teaching.
